The Gates Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Klutke Thursday afternoon of last week. A no-host luncheon was served at 1:30. Following the luncheon hour the business session was held with Mrs. Elmer Stewart presiding. Mrs. Klutke, chairman of the building committee, reported that $30 had been collected by public subscription to be added to the fund. Dave Reid, Jerry's Tavern and the Maples Cafe gave to the fund. Mrs. Bob Lewis, a new member, solicited the money.

Promises of volunteer labor when work starts on the clubhouse were made by Paul Davis, Elmer Stewart, Wilson Park, Bob Jackson, Fred Butler, Harold Heath, Bill Hutcheson, and others. Elmer Klutke, Clare Henness and Bill Hirte have donated labor and use of a truck to haul lumber for the hall. Tex Allen has furnished blueprints for the building and Dick Parker of the Gates Furniture store has donated articles to be sold to add to the fun for a fireplace.

Women of the club wish to take this means to express their gratitude to these men and to all the others who may in the future help in the erection of the building which will be used as a community house, not only for the club but for young people and organizations which need a place to meet.

Next regular meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Harold Wilson Thursday afternoon, Sept. 8. New members are being sought, and a cordial invitation is extended to all new women residing in Gates to attend.

Mrs. Riley Champ was hostess at her home Wednesday afternoon last week to members of the Birthday Club and guests. A luncheon was served by the hostess, followed by an afternoon of cards.

Mrs. Edmund Davis held high score, Mrs. Walter Brisbin second, Mrs. Martha Bowes received consolation prize. Guest prize was awarded Mrs. Gwen Schaefer. Others present were Mrs. Blanch Dean, Mrs. Lula Collins; and guests, Mrs. Robert Lavon, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Nelson Lanphear and Miss Georgia Shane.

Mr. and Mrs. Everet Rob and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, and infant daughter of Portland were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson.

Mrs. Shirley Mitchell and two children of Seattle were guests for several days last week at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klutke.

Mrs. Lincoln Henness was confined to her bed two days last week as the result of numerous stings when she accidentally stepped into a yellow jackets' nest. The angry insects swarmed over her.

Bob Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver, sustained a severe cut on his hand, which required five stitches to close. Oliver had just recovered from a seriously cut leg and had been at work but three days when the second injury occurred.

Lyle Rush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush, was operated upon for appendicitis last week and is hospitalized in Salem.

Paul Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap were dinner guests Sunday in Stayton at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Riley Champ of the arrival of a new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Champ July 26 in Burbank, Calif. The boy was named Rex Douglas.

Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Davis of Salem were week end guests at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Champ, who with their guests attended the dedication of the new Santiam highway Sunday and also visited Breitenbush Hot Springs. Guests Saturday at the Champ home were his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Champ and son Kenneth.

Gates Woman's Club members sold sandwiches, coffee, cake and cold drinks while the parade was forming Sunday morning, the proceeds going to their building fund. A total of $25 was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Miley of Stayton and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bolmeire of Silverton, were guests at the home of Miss Georgia Shane Saturday. Mrs. Theodore Burton and son Billy were also luncheon guests one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo and family motored to Silverton last week to visit with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larson from California, who had been called to Silverton by the death of Mr. Larson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, their daughter, Mrs. Robert Lavon, son, Royal and Mrs. Gwen Schaefer and children formed a family party attending the dedication of the highway Sunday.
