

Trailer Courts

AT MARTIN'S

By Trigger Howard

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Miller planned a few days trip to the coast but had to postpone it due to a prospective buyer for their trailer house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Carlson and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Howard spent the week-end at the coast fishing. There were plenty of salmon, but they are still there.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen picked berries at Gates this week. Picking was good.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McElvain spent a quiet week-end at home taking care of the camp's animals.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Matthew spent the week-end in Portland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou McCabe are visiting friends at Gates.

Melvin 'Woody' Woodrun and his friend made a trip to Roseburg over the week-end.

Camp news is busy these days. A new approach and steps have been put in at the utility building by Mr. Hansen.

Mrs. Woodrun is making drapes for her trailer house.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Gross and family spent a few days at Newport fishing but had no luck.

A Stanley party was given Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Miller. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. McElvain, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Woodrun, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, Lyle Cowdery, Howard Schroll, with Harold Day as demonstrator.

Mrs. Claude Miller visited friends in Eugene Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Wiley who are new residents of the court had guests from Sutherland, Ore. over the week-end. They were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Yatsse and Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne and (Bill and Todd of CBI) spent a busy week-end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton and Mr. and Mrs. William Tuttle and family rode to Detroit over the new highway on Sunday and enjoyed a picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Keith and daughter, Beverly moved here from Cottage Grove. Mr. Keith is employed by CBI.

MARION

The wide open spaces are calling to G. D. Winshel of Binghamton, New York. He is making a trip along the skyline trail from Breitenbush Hot Springs to the McKenzie river. He reported the trails in fine shape to Pamela Creek. He visited at Marion Forks and next morning left for the rest of trek.

Many tourists are again using the North Santiam highway since the opening of the new road. Those businesses depending upon traffic are happy to have things back to normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning and daughters, Roberta and Shirley of Detroit, accompanied by Dorland Ray of Idanha visited at Marion Forks Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tomlinson of Estacada, Ore., old friends of the Scott Youngs, spent a few days fishing and visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy N. Moore of Milwaukie, Ore. visited with the Youngs Sunday. They are old time friends.

Mrs. Grace Smith of Roseburg, Ore. made a visit with her son Dean Smith here.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Parsons of Houston, Texas have moved back to Marion Forks recently. Mr. Parsons will work for Morgan and Young in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pugh made a visit to Marion Forks Tuesday.

AT THE SILVER SADDLE

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Randall went to Salem over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kurtti and family have moved from the court to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hopper had dinner at Bend Sunday and on their return stopped to see Lauritz Hansen at Detroit.
