 Detroit grade school's enrollment is 240 this year, divided by grades as follows: 1st grade, 40; 2nd, 38; 3rd, 33; 4th, 25; 5th, 31; 6th, 25; 7th, 34; and 8th, 14.

The new cafeteria is in operation with Mrs. J. E. Fry as cook. High school had an enrollment of 38 opening day. Faculty includes: Miss Arcola Pettit, Carleton, Ore.; Mrs. Ed Hanan, Stanley Whipple, of Milwaukie and Otis White, principal.

Mrs. Mildred Bischoff gave a party at her home Wednesday honoring Mrs. Yvonne Leming, with Mrs. Nita Brown and Mrs. Alpha Eberly as assistant hostesses. Games were played and prizes awarded to Jean Cannon and Lillian Walter. Those attending were Opal Leming, Mary Gulliford, Jean Fry, Gertrude Alvin, Lillian Walter, Jean Cannon, Leila Cannon, Pearl Hamilton, Elizabeth Corbett and Emma Rhodes. Those sending gifts were Mamie Sievers, Shirley Hammer, Nita Thorton, Zeda Rynearson, Pauline Wolf and Melba Delaire. Dainty refreshments were served and favors given each guest.

On Friday evening at the Church of Christ a surprise party was given for Mrs. Eldon White by Mrs. Richard Hansen and Mrs. Dale Palmer. About 30 women attended and prizes were given Mrs. E. W. Bray and Mrs. Ray Johnson in contests played. The honor guest received many gifts. After the opening of these, lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses. For decorations the hostesses had a merry-go-round decorated in pink and blue and some of the smaller gifts were suspended from these.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Owens (formerly Erma Clayton) are the parents of a baby boy born last week.

The first meeting of the season of the county extension service was held last week at the Women's Clubhouse with Mrs. Barney Kirsch, president, presiding. Committees were appointed and it was agreed to sponsor a 4-H club for the grade school children. Attending were:

Alma Kirsch, Eula Monroe, Merle Teeters, Doris Teeters, Estelle Philippi and Madeline Ridling.

C. W. McCall who underwent an appendectomy at a Salem hospital last week is home and reportedly doing well.

Harry Monroe, who was injured working on McCully last week, is home and up and about. He and Mrs. Monroe spent Monday fishing on the Metolius.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shields left Wednesday for Merrill, Ore., to visit relatives. They were accompanied by Phyllis Wallen who will attend normal school this year in Ashland. Pat-sy, their daughter, spent the week with the Leo Wagner family.

Gib Wagner, Bur Johnson and the two Blum boys shot a bear on Monument Peak Sunday. Andy Spriggs of the Southern Barbecue offered to cook part of it.

A bear also was trapped in Kubin's prune orchard last week by a government trapper.

The M. M. Williams family has moved to Dallas. They have spent the last year working and logging on the Kubin place.
