

Trailer Courts

AT MARTIN'S

Todd McGee's brother surprised her over the week-end. She had not seen him in two years.

The Howards and the Carlsons tried their luck at fishing again in the Alesca river near Waldport. This time the sucker wasn't on the wrong end of the pole. Mert, Hip and Bud all caught a fish. Of course mine was the one that got away, but it was a thrill even though I did lose it.

Joyce Mattila, Happy MacElvain, Bobby Yates, Mert Carlson and Trigger Howard all played hooky from housework Wednesday and went black berrying on Monument Peak.

Mert and Hip Carlso nreally surprised all of us Monday wen they returned from Portland with a new car. Glessner and Harvey Parke are really luck people. They have a surprise planned for all of us, only I got the inside of it. Tuesday night they went to Salem and bought a trailer—a new 1950 Kit—29 feet—and it will be here sometime this week. More things are happening.

Millie and Roy Burton will be on their way Friday for California. He is employed by Shea Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton's son, Dean, who is visiting them from Almagordo, N. Mex., has returned to the air base there where he is stationed.

Harold and Opal Werner went to Salem Saturday and Sunday to Idanaha where they had a picnic.

Have you ever wondered about things, such as huckleberries, how hard they are to get and where you find them? Have you heard of the patch on Monument Peak? Lots of people have. This year picking was at its best. A total of 126 cars passed through the check station in two weeks, with 1604 people. Now that's a lot of people hungry for huckleberry pie. Now listen to this: these people picked 2522 gallons of berries. What a pie that would make. But then, when you come down to it in figures, is only averages 1 1/2 gallon to the person. Well, what do you know, I guess I got my share after all.

Elkhorn

By MRS. MILLIE BICKETT

Word was received last week that Lester (Sorty) Gray died of a heart attack at his home in Springfield. He was a brother of Mrs. Frank White and a former Elkhorn resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Knox, and family of Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett and family spent Sunday at Washington Park in Portland.

Ike Myers spent Saturday at the Soil Conservation Day held on Irvin Bartels' farm North of Shaw.

The people of Elkhorn appreciate the work that is being done on the Elkhorn-Gates road and on the road to Mehama.

Mrs. Mary Patrick and Mrs. Rose Collins were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett Friday.

Bob Van Eaton spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Longnecker.

Roberta Longnecker, Elsie Myers, and Millie Bickett attended Faith Rebekah Lodge in Lyons Wednesday.

Mill City

Mrs. Richard Turpin returned recently from a trip to Oak Ridge where she visited her son, Frank Klein and family.

Miss Hope Baney, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Oderman, Kathy and Jimmy are planning to go to Eugene this week-end to visit Mrs. Oderman's sister, Mrs. George Gillenwater and family and to attend the Oregon-Idaho football game.

A dinner party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett who were celebrating their 16th wedding anniversary. She received a solitaire diamond and wedding ring from her husband. He got an electric shaver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Faust drove to Albany Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alton Parks and family. They then went on to Corvallis and visited cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly and family called upon Mrs. Aaron Wolfe of Portland Sunday. The late Dr. Wolfe was minister of the Presbyterian church here at one time.
