Charles Kelly is taking off Friday night on a hunting trip—destination unknown.

School children have been noticed walking in the roadway across the bridge. Also, there has been a lot of other needless walking on other streets. With a good system of school patrols, it ought to be a safe year for kids—if they'll play safe.

Visiting at the J. B. Love home have been his brother, W. S. Love, and wife, of Eugene, and sister, Mrs. Ruth King of San Luis Obispo, Calif. Mrs. King is returning home after spending the summer at Glacier National Park.

Lee Kuhlman, Salem, is working with Mt. States Power Co. and plans to move here with his family as soon as living quarters can be found. Mrs. Kuhlman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Greene.

Mrs. Bert Vought and Richard Flanders of Los Angeles have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

W. R. Greene and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Heller.

To the Editor:
THE HAYSTACK HISTORIAN
By FRANK VAN CAMP
Webster deplored the North-South division in some churches as foreboding evil to the Union. Also for the same reason, he wanted no split in the un-Democratic Party. But Lincoln's splitting that party brought on the Civil War.

Had FDR not catered to certain evils in 1936 he would have been defeated in that year's election. It was necessary for him to let run some wrongs and corruptors that he may not have a host of corruptors against him.

He kept the embargo that ruined the good Spanish Republic, and put reactionaries back in power in lands as fast as we conquered them—all of which was necessary because, in Lincoln's phrase, he was "after bigger game." FDR also knew it was best to prevent Japan's big army on the Siberian border to go west and help Hitler conquer England. So he managed to force Japan to fight in the Pacific.

The deep-tangled meanings of "men and mice" are difficult to understand. The results of the Second World War became the world's greatest revolution.
