Miss Marilyn Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Murray, and John Sugrue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sugrue, of Detroit, Mich., will be married Saturday in Portland at the All Saints Catholic Church, the Rev. Thomas J. Tobin performing the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Narey of Portland will be bridesmaid and best man.

Following a wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., the young couple will be at home in Mill City.

Miss Murray, recently of Detroit, was a receptionist there. Her father is public relations executive for Consolidated Builders, Inc. Mr. Sugrue is also with CBI, employed in the warehouse office.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Colburn and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wood drove to the damsite Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Tuers are the parents of a baby boy, their fourth, born Friday here.

Mrs. Lowell Stiffler and Mrs. Geo. Veteto were hostesses at a stork shower honoring Mrs. Temar Iverson. Guests were Mrs. Bud Mattson, Mrs. John Muir, Mrs. Waldo Nettleton and Mrs. L. N. Iverson of Salem, and Mrs. Joe Walters. Sending gifts were Mrs. Joe Joaquin and Mrs. A. Stahlman.

The evening was spent playing bingo and at the close a lovely luncheon was served.

Bill Hirming and Nedrebeau were callers in Mill City Sunday. They are former residents who are now living in McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Veteto drove to Roseberg Sunday to visit his daughter, Mrs. David Maxon, who was operated upon recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Stiffler and family visited Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Aasland and family of Harrisburg Sunday. Mr. Aasland was a former S. P. clerk here.

Russ King and Al Ward were out hunting Saturday but had no luck. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Davis and Frank Blazek left on a hunting trip Tuesday. Byron is trying to shoot the deer he missed Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blazek, Mr. and Mrs. Red Wells, Asey PPodrabsky, Pearly Cribbs, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goschie, H. Maag, Charles Kelly, were among those who joined the exodus to eastern Oregon to try their luck at deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Coville of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Guimpapa of Los Angeles visit Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coville over the week-end, the latter moving into the Coville apartments on th Marion County side.

Ira Teeters, who has been in the Salem Memorial hospital for the past three weeks, is much improved.

Dave Reid, fire insurance agent, was much surprised when he was called back to his office because of a fire. A lightedcigaret thrown into a waste paper basket under his desk. A neighbor saw the fire and reported it.

Mrs. Joe Liberty cut her hand on an unbreakable glass this week, requiring five stitches.

THEATER CHANGES HOURS

The Mill City Theater will discontinue the Sunday afternoon matinee this week, and the regular evening show will begin at 5:30, running continuously through the evening. The second show will begin at 7:30, and a complete bill can be seen up to 8:30. "Unafraid," scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 13, has been dropped, and a comedy, "Cockeyed Miracle," with Keenan Wynn, Frank Morgan and Cecil Calloway, will take its place.

Canyon Fetes

'T' Henness, 95

"T" Henness, Gates pioneer, was honored Sunday by many friends and relatives on the occasion of his 95th birthday. The affair was held in the social rooms of the high school in Gates.

Mr. Henness came to Gates when he was a youngster of ten, and has lived here since. In spite of his advanced age he is hale and hearty and his stories of the early days spent here are full of historical facts.

The afternoon began with a covered dish dinner, followed by visiting and talking over old times.

"T" recently was honored when the new North Santiam Highway was opened, riding in the lead car with Gov. Douglas McKay.

Mr. Henness, as a youth, with his brothers, had blazed many trails through the Canyon, and Eph Henness, his late brother, is credited as one of the discoverers of the pass.

Present, besides the honored guest, were Eldie C. Turnidge, Mr. and Mrs. George Cree, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Turnidge, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mrs. J. R. Geddes and Mrs. Alice C. Burton, all of Mill City;

From Hillsboro were Mr. and Mrs. George Russell, George Kristensen, Kyle Clark, Keith Clark, Dale Clark and Weaver Clark; Luther Stout of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Vane Henness of Mitchell, Ore.; from Lyons were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bevier, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Nydegger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett and son Cecil.

Those from Gates included Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henness and son Earl, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Henness, Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Alexander, Mrs. Lillie Lake and Joan and Arthur Lake.

DAVID KARR TOPS IN MATH TEST AT U. OF O.

David Karr, Mill City High School

salutatorian last spring, made the highest grade among the entering freshmen at the University of Oregon this fall.

Young Karr, who shared with Marian King the honors of the '49 class, also received top rating in high school preparation, according to a former teacher, Miss Ina Pearl Allen.

"As he was in competition with students from all the large high schools in the state, I think the record speaks well for Hill City High," wrote Miss Allen.

IDANHA POWER ADDS UNIT

The Idanha Power Co. is adding a 200 kilowatt diesel generator, is was announced by Paul Reynolds, manager, today.

Foundations already have been poured, and the unit, which will add about 30 per cent to the plant capacity, is expected to be in operation by Oct. 20.

"The installations were made to keep up with the growth of the Canyon," Mr. Reynolds said.
