

Mehama

By MRS. JEAN ROBERTS

A promising young painter has just made his debut in the Mehama community. Roddy Wilson, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ercill Wilson is the artist.

Roddy tired of the red color of his tricycle, and painted it with black grease. Four pairs of overalls also got painted. Roddy was painting the walls of his father's shop when his painting career was abruptly halted.

Barbecued bear meat is a popular dish in the Mehama area, with the killing of a second bear, by the Kubin boys last Sunday. Thirteen hours were spent barbecuing it, along with some venison, turkeys, etc., that Andy Spriggs custom cooks.

Another eating establishment was opened here Saturday—Roy and Hazel's fountain and lunch.

State highway stop signs appeared on all Mehama side streets last week.

A home extension meeting was held at the Women's Clubhouse last Friday, with Miss Eleanor Trindle, extension agent, speaking on the subject of unifying home furnishings.

About 1 women were present. Mrs. Doris Teeters, Mrs. Merle Teeters and Mrs. Reer White served refreshments.

A new roof was put on Mrs. Moe's house last week by her relatives. Visiting and assisting over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kornmann of Vancouver and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brant of Macleay.

A quilting bee sponsored by the ladies aid was held at the home of Mrs. Merle Teeters last Thursday. Object of the meeting was to make a quilt for the Cox family, who were burned out. The quilt was completed and five or six blankets were donated.

How many have noticed Mehama's town clock, placed on the front of Martin's body and fender shop, by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Martin. It's a nice clock with luminous dial clearly visible at night.

Parents gathered in the school basement Thursday night to discuss continuance of the hot lunch program in the grade school. It was decided to give an entertainment and supper in the near future to raise funds for the program.

SANTIAM GRANGE MEETS

Santiam grange held their regular meeting at the hall Friday evening with 23 members present. The regular routine of business was carried out with a committee appointed to buy a hot water heater for the kitchen. Their social night will be held Friday evening, October 21. The home economics club will hold their meeting at the home of Mrs. Mat Patton on Tuesday afternoon, October 11. Dances will be held every Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton who are grangers in South Dakota, were guests of the evening.

LYONS

Several hunters returning from their hunting trip to eastern Oregon report snow in that locality, with 14 inches on the Santiam Pass.

The first series of the afternoon card parties was held Wednesday at the Rebekah hall with Mrs. Arthur Olmstead, hostess. A one-thirty desert luncheon was served followed by several tables of 500. High score went to Mrs. Orville Downing, low to Mrs. Bob Carleton. The guest prize went to Mrs. Calvin Trahan. Present for the afternoon were Mrs. Bob Free, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Walter Bevier, Mrs. Albert Bass, Mrs. Pat Lyons, Mrs. Vern Nydigger, Mrs. Calvin Trahan, Mrs. Earl Allen, Mrs. Bob Carleton, Mrs. Orville Downing and Mrs. Olmstead.

Detroit

By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

Detroit High School will hold its annual carnival Friday. Several clever posters are advertising the affair locally. The carnival will be held in the new auditorium. A large crowd can be accommodated. Proceeds will go for school equipment.

Miss Arcola Petit is taking a two weeks rest at the home of her brother in Toledo, due to illness. She is home economics and typing teacher. Mrs. Ringo of Gervais has been secured to teach in her absence.

First snow of the year was seen on nearby hills here Thursday morning. The same day snow fell on Santiam Pass and other places in eastern Oregon. Some of the cutting crews in logging operations had to lay off for several days because of the snow. Ray Johnson who was brought home from Salem Memorial Hospital Saturday is improving at his home here. He was in the hospital sometime with a severe attack of stomach ulcers.
