behind them, at least that's what they told their wives they were chasing.

Burdette Cole took his wife with him to eastern Oregon hunting, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meinert of Mill City. They left Wednesday and returned the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards spent several days in Eugene at the home of his son, Claude Edwards, and family. While in Eugene Mrs. Edwards visited a girlhood friend, Mrs. M. M. Hollis, whom she had not seen for 49 years. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards plan to leave this week on a trip to Portland and from there to southern California and Arizona to spend the winter.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tex Allen this week were her twin sister, Mrs. Neal Schuman, and Mrs. Effie Schuman, both of Portland.

SCENE from "Little Women," the Louisa May Olcott story appearing in a film to be shown at the Mill City Theater Oct. 16 and 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lewis have returned to Los Angeles, their former home, for the winter. Mrs. Lewis and daughter Robin made the trip by rail and Mr. Lewis drove his truck. He moved the belongings of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson to Roseburg on his way. Mrs. Wilson and two boys rode with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and boys have moved to Roseburg where Mr. Wilson has secured employment in the furniture department of Montgomery Ward store there. He formerly was employed by Dave Epps in the Mill City Furniture Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kirkland who have resided in the Oak Park Motel for some time left Sunday for Lebanon where he is now employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap spent Sunday in Stayton at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edmund Klecker, and family.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin returned home Saturday evening after a week spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Hirte, where she cared for the Hirte children during the absence of their parents.

Zane Spick and Glen Hearing were married Sept. 29 in Pasco, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Hearing will make their home in Gates where he is in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul, formerly of Longbeach, Calif., have moved to Gates from Mill City. They have rented the house just completed by Davis and Park and purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards. Mr. Paul is employed in the office of CBI.

Announcements have been made of the marriage Sept. 20 of Mrs. Florence Carryott and Wesley Wise, both of Portland. The bride is a former resident of Gates where she was in business for several years and has many friends here.

COOPERATIVE KINDERGARTEN, STARTS AGAIN AT LYONS

A meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Prideaux last Thursday evening at which plans were made for the starting of the kindergarten school which will be held twice a week on Wednesdays and Fridays at the Twin Cedars school house. Mrs. Charles Power will be the instructor again assisted by the various mothers. The first class was held Wednesday, October 5th. Present at the Prideaux home were Mrs. Robert Petherston, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Olmstead, Mrs. William Prichard, Mrs. George Attaberry, Mrs. Charles Power and Mrs. Phelps.
