Ed. Note: Ruth Johnson, Idanha, has composed the following poetic reply to George Steffy's verses on "Woman" in last week's Enterprise:

THAT GUY CALLED MAN

By Ruth Johnson

Woman puts up with a creature called man;
Sometimes you can't stand him sometimes you can.
He builds you up—then lets you down,
And brags about being the boss over town.
He'll buy you a mink coat and call you his dear
Then haul you out roundly to see you in tears.
Now rude as a donkey, then meek as a lamb;
Now crowned with a halo, then meaner than—damn.
He'll pick you to pieces, then kiss you back—well?
—What will he do next? you never can tell.
You took him for better; you got him for worse;
With as much or as little as he had in his purse.
So if he's like mine, you are holding the bag;
There's no use to whimper, to cry or to nag.

"JOE BEAVER"

By Ed Nofziger

"They're renaming the Columbia National Forest as a memorial to Gifford Pinchot. Too bad he can't see the dedication, eh Joe?"

Just hold your chin up, and smile, ladies, smile,
At least he is nice to you once in a while.
And though at most times there's not much in his purse,
Just look around you—you could have done worse.

LITTLE ILLS

MAKE BIG BILLS!

• True, that "little illnesses" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
