Around the Dam.

Slosh, slop, plop—mud and slop, trickle, trickle, gurgle, tin pants and rubber boots, sneezes, coughs and running snouts. Summer's over.

Ken Arndt up on the south side switchback watching for a snag, his teeth chattering in unison with a couple of wagon drills. That's cold on them thar hills.

Crane swinging 12x12s in place ... Carpenters drilling holes and driving doweled pins in crib bays ... Pumps trying to keep ahead of seepage ... You take some brains, brawn, sweat, lots of strong words and materials, and a couple of inspectors to make a cofferdam ... Anyone wishing to commit suicide stop by the coffer dam and recite, "Little drops of water, little grains of sand.' ... That's all, folks.

Better Vision Means Happier Leisure

Eye care will return dividends for every penny it costs. One pair of eyes must last us a lifetime. Don't force them beyond their ability. If you can't see you can't read. If you can't read you can't learn. If you can't learn you can't earn. Take the best care of your eyes.
