Some guys just can't make up their minds which way they want to go! They know they want to go some place and are in a heck of a hurry to get there, wherever it may be. One Gates youth couldn't make up his mind last Saturday—whether to take "the high road or the low road" at the intersection approaching the bridge. In his haste and undecided state of mind he lost control of his car, smacked into the fence on the southeast corner of the Millsap place, tore out six sections of the fence, breaking the barbed wire, smashing the boards and snapping the guy wire on a light pole.

It is hoped that he has his mind made up to take it a mite easier next time, and he might even offer to fix the fence and report to the light company the broken wire, just to show his heart is in the right place even if his head isn't perking.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker and family of Stayton were visitors Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap.

The Gates correspondent regretted to learn of the sale of The Enterprise. They have enjoyed working with Mr. and Mrs. Wolverton and appreciate their kindness in overlooking and correcting the misspelled words and bum reporting that has so often been handed them as news. They are good scouts and good bosses. Good luck to them and also to the new boss when he takes over.

The Gates Womans Club met in regular session in the social rooms of the schoolhouse Thursday afternoon. Hostesses of the day were Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Theodore Burton, Mrs. Velma Carey and Mrs. Albert Millsap, officers of the club.

Following the luncheon hour the business session was called, Mrs. Elmer Stewart presiding. Plans for the bazaar to be held by the club Nov. 12 were discussed and committees appointed. Mrs. Harold Wilson reported for the committee in charge of the turkey dinner held Wednesday evening that $145.55 had been taken in, and this sum will be added to the building fund.

A drawing for a prize which had been donated to the club by the Gates Furniture Co. was held, Mrs. Hollis Turnidge winning. Mrs. Millsap who had volunteered personally to raise money for a fireplace in the new club house reported a start of $37 toward that end. The program committee announced a hard times Halloween party for members and their families at the schoolhouse. Admission will be one vegetable which will be used in the stew to be served during the evening. Any coming uncostumed will be fined. The social meeting will be Thursday afternoon, Oct. 27, at the home of Mrs. Burton with Mrs. Frank Saunders and Mrs. Edward Chance, assisting hostesses.

The turkey dinner sponsored by the club last Wednesday evening was a grand success, both financially and as a demonstration of co-operation and good will in the community. The generous servings were delicious and many requests have been received to repeat the affair. The club wishes to thank the committee in charge, all
