By MRS. JEAN ROBERTS
Ken Golliet, local merchant, will hold his third annual Hallowe'en party Monday night for the entire Mehama community.
Golliet's Hallowe'en party is a gala affair with all the store personnel turning out to help with decorations and other party preparations.
This year, as usual, it will be a masquerade with plenty of prizes, games and refreshments for everyone.

Miss Ann Bergholtz, assistant county club agent, met with mothers, teachers and pupils at the Mehama school to organize a 4-H club. Five girls enrolled in the 4-H project under the leadership of Mrs. Madeleine Ridling. They chose "Busy Bees" as their club name and elected the following officers: Joyce Shum, president, Judy Monroe, vice president, and Geraldine Longfellow, secretary.
Seven girls and two boys enrolled in a Cooking I 4-H club directed by Mrs. Doris Teeters. They plan to meet every second Monday.
Miss Wood, home economics instructor from Stayton, was guest at the regular meeting of the Women's Club last Wednesday. She demonstrated the use of textile paints. She plans to attend the next meeting on Nov. 2 for further instruction.

Word was received here last week that Mr and Mrs. Joe Jones (daughter of Mrs. Jennie Moe) are parents of a baby boy, Mrs. Moe's 13th grand child. They live at Klamath Falls.
Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Erickson, former Mehama residents, have moved here again after spending the last few years in Stayton and California. They have moved into the Leo Kirsch home.
The Farmers Union is sponsoring a free movie to be shown in the Women's clubhouse Friday night, Oct. 28. The public is invited. Pie and coffee will be served following the show.
The Campfire girls have been re-organized under the leadership of Mrs. Carmen McDonald assisted by Mrs. Frances McCarley. The group started off enthusiastically with a pot luck spuer and slumber party at the clubhouse Monday night, followed by a hike and campfire cooking Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Beckman of Yakima, Wash., were week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kirkland. They were friends in South Dakota years ago.

The town of Mehama is practically bereft of men, as elk season has opened. One group of hunters, eight in all, really prepared for emergencies and a successful hunt by packing a truck with camping equipment, a small "cat" and $100 worth of groceries before leaving for eastern Oregon. Many logging concerns and mills are temporarily short-handed due to elk fever.

Home extension meeting under the auspices of the county extension unit will deal with window treatment at its next meeting Nov. 4. It will be an all-day meeting with pot luck lunch at noon. Women are invited to bring a favorite recipe and start a recipe book as a side project.

The community chest drive is under way in the Mehama area with Mrs. Merle Teeters in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Golliet returned Friday from a trip to Victoria, B. C., where they visited friends. They were accompanied by two other couples.
Mrs. Ed Taylor who suffered a broken ankle recently is reportedly doing well, and venturing about on crutches.

School physical examinations for first graders and those students screened for special examination through Nurse - Teacher conference, will be held at the grade school on Thursday, Nov. 3, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

An immunization clinic will be at the same place, the Detroit grade school, Friday, Nov. 4, for preschool children, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tucker took their daughter, Betty, to Salem to be treated for a throat infection. They returned her to Salem Saturday for the same treatment. She is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank New and daughters, Eva Lou and Sally, left Friday evening for Lebanon to spend the week end with the Otis Floyds there. They returned home Sunday.

Richard Davis, brother of Mrs. Ed Evenson, left Monday from Eugene to enter the Air Corps. Mr. Davis has been making his home here for several months.

Week end guests at the Eddie Evenson home were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hewitt, Salem.

The regular meeting of the Deanna PTA was held at the grade school library Monday with T. C. Moore presiding. After a short business meeting, at which the membership chairman, Mrs. Floy Storey, reported a drive well under way with a roll of 97, an interesting program was presented.

Mrs. Joan Cauble sang, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Skidmore. A history of PTA was given by Mrs. Jane Weisgerber. Mrs. Fratzke, vice president of Region 9, and Mrs. Ralph Sepprell, Marion County council president, were guests of honor and conducted a roundtable discussion on the need for parent education. They also explained the uses of the 25 cent per capita tax of the parent organization.

The Boy Scout court of honor was held in the Detroit auditorium Monday night. The court was conducted by the scoutmaster, Don Streigle, assisted by Col Tucker, assistant scoutmaster, and two committeemen, Henry Heibert and Ray Overholser.

Thirteen boys, in an impressive ceremony, received tenderfoot badges. They were: Leonard Overholser, Rex Leach, Jack Weisgerber, Alan Girod, Ronald Gibbs, Jimmy Stahman, Donald Snyder, Fred Davis, Robert Laity, Jerry Lisle, Terry Ferguson, and Russell Eice. Second class badges were presented Jon Tucker and Quinton Finley. Wayne Lisle was presented the senior patrol badge and Gerald Tucker a first class badge.

Gerald Vickers, Gerald Tucker, Dick Woodward and Shorty Lisle got stripes as patrol leaders. Assigned as assistant patrol leaders were Dick Caulkins, Donald Snyder, Fred Davis and Moyné Renner. Scribe award was given Leonard Overholser, and Dick Woodward got the bugler award.
Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria.

A group of men from Detroit and Idanha will have a work day at the church building next Saturday, followed by a fellowship pot luck dinner at the CCC Camp messhall.

want to remind you that Christmas is beginning to creep up on us and that it is not too early to begin thinking about Photographs of your children or family group for the Ideal Christmas Gift. A photograph of yourself is the gift only you can give; unique and deeply appreciated by friends who receive it.

Photographers always have a rush of last-minute business during the Christmas Season and that is why we say HAVE YOUR PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN EARLY AND AVOID DELAYS that usually develop near the end of December.

McEwan's prices are very reasonable—as low as $9.00 per dozen for 3 x 5 photos in fine mounts. 5 x 7's are $15.00 per dozen. We are proud of having maintained our low prices without increase since pre-war days.

Our studio in the Mill City Furniture Store is open each Friday afternoon and evening.
