The Mill City fire department responded promptly to a call for help from here last Wednesday when the large tent house of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ryan caught fire from an overheated stovepipe.

The blaze was hard to reach because it was burning in the top of the canvas roof which couldn't be scaled.

But Harry McKey (who is short and plump) climbed up on a table and Gerald Garrison (who is tall and skinny) stood on his shoulder and beat out the flames with a wet sack before the firemen arrived.

Damage was confined to a large hole in the canvas.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stewart Sunday when members of the Fancher clan met for the first time in seven years. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and three children, Mr. and Mrs. William Athey and five daughters, all of Gates; Mrs. Walter McKean and three daughters of O'Neal, Calif.; Mrs. Loretta Fancher of Renton, Wash.; and Hugh Fancher and two sons of Issaquah, Wash. Mrs. McKean and daughters and Mrs. William Athey accompanied Mr. Fancher to Washington upon his return, for a visit there.

Mrs. William Pennick was hostess at luncheon at her home honoring her mother-in-law on her birthday anniversary Oct. 19. Places were laid at the table for the guest of honor, Mrs. N. L. Pennick, Mrs. Hollis Turndick, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. Minnie Everton, and Mrs. Louis Kelle, all of Gates; Mrs. Artie Mack, Mrs. Lionel Colgan and son Roy, Mrs. Charles Ball and Glenda Jo, all of Mill City; and the hostess and Patsy and Billy. A gift was received from Mrs. Harold Wilson who was unable to attend.

Guests at the homes of Mrs. N. L. Pennick and Mrs. William Pennick last week were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fulton and daughter, Mrs. Ida Hampton and son of Upland, Calif.

From Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mombert. Mr. Mombert is a former resident of Gates where his parents operated the old Gates hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carey and two children of Portland spent last week end at the home of his mother, Mrs. Velma Carey. Carey, who was seriously injured in a car wreck a year ago and hospitalized for several months in Salem, recently underwent another of several operations on his injured leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wrigglesworth and family of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wrigglesworth and two children of Tacoma were over the week end guests at the home of Ernest Wrigglesworth, their father.

Practice has begun by the junior and senior classes of the high school on their annual play. This year it will be a mystery, in three acts, entitled "The Stroke of Twelve."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harmon are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, a girl, born in Salem Memorial Hospital Oct. 17. Mrs. Harmon has a son by a former marriage.

Elmer Cooper, father of Mrs. Joe Joaquin and former resident of Gates, now of Lakeview, was a visitor here the first of the week.

LITTLE ILLS
MAKE BIG BILLS!

True, that "little illness" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
