MEHAMA

By MRS. JEAN ROBERTS

Another community supper is being planned by the parents of school children to raise a fund for continuing the hot lunch program at school. The group met late last week and decided to give a chicken noodle dinner Nov. 18 to be priced at 75c a plate for adults and 35c for youngsters. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Oran Small, Mrs. Reed White, Mrs. Ira Kirsch, Mrs. Madeline Riddling, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Chris McDonald and Mrs. Ray Howard. Refreshments following the meeting were provided by Mrs. Chris McDonald.

More elk hunters have returned home some successful and others not. Mr. and Mrs. Ervill Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fender returned late last week as did Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor.

The Women's club met last Wednesday with Miss Pat Woods of Stayton demonstrating textile paints. Nearly 25 women were in attendance. The club plans to invite Mill City, Gates and Lyons to their next meeting.

Mehama school children are writing news items as part of their English assignment, following are a few notes:

Doris Teeters comes to the Mehama school, every noon. She plays ball with the children and shows them how to bat, throw and catch. The children appreciate it very much.—Joyce Valentine.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Keys had company Saturday. Mrs. Keys had her two sisters come up with a four months old baby girl and a two-month old baby boy.—Pat Keys.

Primary Room News—Diana Wallen brought her pet rabbit to school. Kenneth Williams made a pen for it. Some of the girls and boys have been out of school with pink-eye.—Gary M

Something new in advertising has appeared about town the past week in posters proclaiming a community dinner they read:

Since we all have to eat, with your friends plan to meet
And Rebekah ham dinner share.
We'll do our best you to please, try to make you feel at ease,
So plan if you can to be "there".
We have selected the date, and we hope you're not late—
Saturday, Nov. 12th you see.
We have decided to charge, you can see it's not large
Just only "One Buck" it will be.
Dinner served 6 to 7.
