At Martin's
By TRIGGER HOWARD

Mamie and Warren Synder from Dertter, Ore., were guests of Joyce and Wally Mottila over the weekend. They also visited former friends in Detroit Sunday.

A baby shower in honor of Mrs. Jessie Britt was given at the home of Frances Smith Wednesday. Eight guests were present each bringing a lovely gift.

Mrs. E. Nelson gave birth to a baby girl Tuesday. She is in the Salem hospital. We expect her home Saturday.

Gloria Westgaard is recovering from the flu. She has been sick several days.

Happy McElvain was in Portland over the weekend where she attended the bazaar given by the Mt. Hood Eastern Star Social Club.

Mert and Hip Carlson spent the holidays in Portland.

Bud and Trigger Howard went to Boise, Idaho for Armistice day, to visit her family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sexton and sister Barbara.

The McCabes and Jefferson took their vacation at the coast hoping to fish but found the water much too high. They did have a nice time any way.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES

Don't miss hearing Evangelist Henry L. Rock give interesting experiences out of his life. Being an orphan boy he knew not the love of mother and home, but one day the love of God gripped his heart and changed his life.

Hear him give bits of his life's story at the Free Methodist Church Thursday and Friday 7:30P.M.

L. C. GOULD, Pastor

Apart from Europe and America, apples are cultivated in South America, Australia, New Zealand, Northern India, and China.

The United States Department of Agriculture says the 1949 apple crop is the largest in years, and that the quality, in general, is excellent.
