MILL CITY, OREGON

DETROIT

By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

Detroit Women's Civic club will hold a pot luck dinner November 16 at 7:30 at home of Mrs. S. T. Moore. Mrs. William Cauble Sr. spent several days the last of the week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter at their home in Bend. Mrs. Laura Walker of Los Angeles, Calif. is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edwards. Mr. and Mrs. Hal Benfield Dexter were staying at the Detroit hotel over Armistice day. He was formerly employed by the corps of engineers. They came to visit old friends and to get some of their things. Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Hanson left on Saturday for Canyonville where he has been transferred by the P. P. R. Harry Bebout of Bend was seriously injured on Saturday morning when a bulldozer blade fell on him while he was at work in the forest service road about three miles above Breitenbush hot springs. He was taken by ambulance to Bend where it was found that his leg was broken in two places. The county court decided Monday to wait until votes on the incorporation of Idanha December 9 and Detroit on December 13 had been carried out before deciding whether to abolish the office of Justice of the Peace for the Breitenbush precinct as requested by a number of citizens from both towns who took a petition to that effect to the county court on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Nyberg had as week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jahn of Oakridge and on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. L. Kozad of Albany were visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dryden shot the limit of ducks and geese on a recent hunting trip to Sylvan lake. When the American Legion and its Auxilliary put on their dance at the new school auditorium on November 11, they had a fine crowd. Roy Melsha and his orchestra from Salem were enjoyed and many favorable comments expressed. The door prize was won by Mrs. Townly of Klamath Falls. Money cleared was over $100.00. Part of this will be used by the auxilliary for gifts for hospitalized veterans. On November 19 there will be a joint pot luck dinner of the Christian church of Detroit and the Idanha church at the Rod and Gun Club Hall at 6 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Knoll and son, Gene of Troutlake, Wash. were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Weisgerber. Mrs. Joe Leis returned recently from a few days spent in Hood River with her husband who is doing some building there. Mrs. Marjorie Maw and daughter, Jaqueline of Burns were week-end guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman. Mr. and Mrs. Gale Fagan were visiting friends in Carlton and Portland over the week-end. A very cleverly arranged shower party was given on Thursday evening, November 10 at the auxilliary hall of the F. O. E. honoring Mrs. Richard cannon, a recent bride, who was formerly Miss Shirley Hammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Siever of Idanha. About forty attended. The guests had been asked to come dress-

EPPS FURNITURE CO.'S OPENING WELL ATTENDED

The grand opening ceremonies of the Epps Furniture company in their new Mill City location were attended by a large and appreciative crowd, visitors from all sections of the Mill City trading area being present. The grand prize, an electric dish washer, was won by Mrs. Molly McGee of Mill City. Many additional prizes were presented, and the gala affair was concluded by a banquet at the Manolis cafe.

ed to represent different characters and first prize went to Esther Fauts for the most interesting character, and second prize was won by Alpha Eberly. Mary Gulliford was awarded the prize for guessing correctly the names of characters and Mrs. Lee Thornton got a prize in one of the games played. Everyone reported a grand time and the bride received many beautiful and useful gifts. The party was a surprise and hostesses were Mrs. Anne Anderson and Mrs. Emma Rhodes. Dainty refreshments were served. At the regular meeting of the F. O. E. Auxilliary on Wednesday evening the following women were initiated: Alma Gillespie, Dorothy Christianson, Frances Johnston and Betty Nolan. The week previous Elsie Girod was initiated. The Eagles lodge, Santiam Aerie 2745 are giving a birthday party on November 18 since it is their first anniversary. There will be large class initiations in honor of worthy president, Ed Debolt and anniversary visiting dignitaries are expected. Following the initiations the banquet will be held in the ladies' auxilliary hall for members of the Eagles and auxilliary. All members cordially invited.
