GRANGE PLANS INSTALLATION
Santiam Valley Grange will hold installation of officers Friday evening, Dec. 16, at 8, according to Fern Sletto, grange secretary. Bertha J. Beck, Oregon state secretary, will be installing officer during the open meeting to the public.
A Christmas party will be held at the same meeting with a gift exchange and pot luck dinner to be held following the installation. Gifts are not to exceed 50 cents.
Grange dues will be taken the same night, it was announced, and all members are asked to bring theirs in order to compete for the 1950 pennant. The Grange has won the pennant the past two years, having collected its dues by March 31 of each year, and officials hope to do the same this year. Dues are $2.60 per member.
An acre of pine trees can produce three times more cellulose than an acre of cotton.

ELKHORN

By ELSIE MYERS

Elkhorn experienced its first snow of the season last week. It started snowing Thursday and by Friday morning there were about three inches on the level.
Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers attended American Legion meetings in Stayton Wednesday evening. The regular meetings were followed by a county council meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Ray recently spent the day at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Schultz of Scio. Their little grandson, who has been suffering with rheumatic fever, was not too well. The Rays brought their little grand-daughter home with them for a few days.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Fay Worley of Molalla on December 4th. Mrs. Worley was the mother of Mrs. Bonita Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baller of Redmond were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Dark.

Those from the Little Northfork attending the Farmers Union in Mehama Friday night were Bell Bickett, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dark and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers.

Salem visitors Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett and girls and Mrs. Mary Patrick.

Mrs. Steve Dark was the guest Friday of Mrs. Goldie Peck.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Myers visited with friends and relatives in Elkhorn Saturday. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers. Sunday guests at the Myers home were Mrs. Myers' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Metzger and her nephew, Robert Exley of Gresham.

FESTIVE PUNCH FOR HOLIDAY PARTIES

Punch makes the party, especially when it's a gleaming bowl of sparkling golden punch set among grape reds and purples, that tastes as good as it looks.
This Banana-Float Punch has a delicious fragrant, fruity flavor and it's amazingly quick and easy to prepare, thanks to the Real Gold canned lemonade, orange and grapefruit bases which are its principal ingredients. The convenient sized cans give you all the fine fresh fruit flavor with none of the fuss and bother of squeezing and straining.
These canned fruit juice bases are economical, too, because they are all juice and no waste. You'll want to keep a supply of all three flavors on hand to use for a variety of delicious, refreshing drinks.

- Banana-Float Party Punch
(makes 30 punch cups)
- 1 can each Real Gold lemonade base, orange base and grapefruit base
  - 2 cups strong tea
  - 1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple
  - 1 quart water
  - 2 quarts charged water
  - 1 banana
- Mix lemonade, orange and grapefruit bases with tea, pineapple and water. Just before serving, pour over ice and add charged water. Slice banana and float on top.

GATES

The second regular meeting of the Gates Chamber of Commerce was held at the Gates Furniture Store, Thursday evening, with W. R. Hutcherson presiding. Plans for future projects were discussed. It was decided to have a community Christmas tree erected and decorated. A committee was appointed to secure the tree and select a site on the highway.

The Church of Christ, Gates, is extending a cordial welcome for everyone in the community to attend services through Sunday morning, December 10. A program has been proposed and a pot-luck dinner will be held following the program. Everybody is welcome.

A delegation of members of the Gates Chamber of Commerce and property owners were in Salem Monday to meet members of the county court, in protest over the proposed closing of several streets in Gates. Petitions had been presented requesting the closure of streets leading from the highway north which would leave property owners towards the hill, with no means of exit from their land.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cline and son from the ranger station in Detroit were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Timon Rains. They reported five inches of snow at the station and more expected to fall.

Miss Janet Klinker who spent a week at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Millisap, returned to her home in Stayton Sunday.

The annual Christmas party of the Gates Woman's club was held in the recreation room of the high school, Thursday afternoon. A short business meeting was held, Mrs. Elmer Stewart presiding. Reports were made by the committees who had arranged the recent bazaar sponsored by the club. Votes of thanks were taken for all the merchants and members who had donated articles to be sold at the bazaar and to all the members who gave their time and efforts to make it a success. Following the business session a program was presented. Miss Eileen Eccleston played a piano solo: "White Christmas". A demonstration showing how to make decorations for the Christmas tree was given by Mrs. Harold Wilson; Mrs. Edmund Davis read "The Night Before Christmas"; a talk: "Christmas in Alabama" was given by Mrs. Paul Davis; Mrs. Theodore Burton gave an amusing monologue; an exchange of Christmas Greetings over the telephone with her mother in Danish. The program was followed by the exchange of gifts by the members present. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. Edmund Davis. Those in attendance were Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Larry Shelton, Mrs. Melbourne Rambo, Mrs. Theodore Burton, Mrs. Frank Saunders, Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Lincoln Henness, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Mrs. Albert Millisap, Mrs. Veima Carey, Mrs. Louisa Romey, a visitor, Mrs. George Manolis and the hostesses, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. Frank Blazek, Mrs. George Stewart, Mrs. Dallas Strickler and Carol Jane Blazek were shopping in Salem Tuesday.
