

MEHAMA MEAT WAGON INCREASES SALES

Another comparatively new Mehama enterprise is expanding. Starting this week the meat wagon owned by Myron Fender, local butcher, is to carry also fresh vegetables to the canyon inhabitants, Detroit, Mongold Idanha and way points.

Several months ago Fender anticipated the needs of the growing Detroit region and started the meat wagon on a daily run from Mehama to Marion Forks. The undertaking met with immediate success, requiring him to employ more help to cut and wrap meat.

With the addition of fresh vegetables, which have been in demand, he plans to enlarge his business after the first of the year.

Mrs. Larry Kimsey honored her sister Mrs. Joe Jones with a gathering of former school mates at her home Tuesday afternoon. Those present were: Betty Johnson, Lorene Philippi, Eual Monroe, Ardys Kimsey, Ruth Brant, Francis Bailey, Margaret Phillips, Aleen Wilson, Inez Crook, Iva Kimsey and the honored guest Arlyn Jones. All had been childhood friends in Mehama years ago with the exception of Mrs. Phillips.

The Women's club plans to meet next Wednesday, December 21 at the home of Mrs. Ken Golliett. They will hold their Christmas party at this time.

Next week promises to be a busy one with most organizations and programs. On Tuesday night, December 19 at 8 o'clock there will be a program at the Mehama church. Thursday night December 22 also at 8 the school is giving their program. It will consist of a program put on by both rooms followed by the annual Christmas treat.

Cold weather, snow and rain has arrived bringing with it additional problems in heating. The Harry Monroe family shivered all day Sunday when their heater, which has been working fine, unexpectedly went on a strike. After considerable negotiations it resumed work late in the evening.

Fourteen youngsters of the Young Peoples class at the Mehama Sunday school spent Sunday afternoon at the Ray Roberts home. After a potluck lunch, the afternoon was spent rehearsing for the Christmas program. Later in the day they all enjoyed playing in the snow and wound up by killing a skunk accidentally discovered.

In the evening they were transported by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook to the Reed White home for Young Peoples meeting. The evening was spent singing songs and pulling taffy. Those attending were: Sam Wallen, David Zolaska, Clifford and Bobby Crook, Phyllis and Roxie McCarley, Dana and Kathleen Wilson, Judy Monroe, Lois White, Ronnie Adams, Margaret White, Lois Rae Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Reed White and children and Mrs. Russell Wilson.

Several Mehama ladies attended the home extension meeting in Stayton last week. They related the meeting as being quite interesting concerning holiday decorations.

Mrs. Madaleine Ridling has been called to California by the death of a relative. Mrs. Harry Monroe will continue with the 4-H program during her absence.

The annual congregational meeting of the Mehama church will be held Dec. 16 at the home of Mrs. Russell Wilson. The Ladies Aid also is to meet there on that date to exchange gifts for their Christmas party.

Jimmie Love purchased a truck load of gravel and Sigmund Jepson and Dick Turpin worked all day Sunday with wheelbarrow and shovel, scattering it on the walkway between the SP depot and the Mill City Hotel. The walk has been very muddy. The project was voluntary.

Mrs. Jack Lacey has been conducting an informal sewing school in her home for several high school girls. Among her pupils are Misses Joan Hoffman, Sue Mikkelsen and Patricia Wolverton.

A meeting for the pre-school mothers was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindermann to discuss and make plans for the future. The school which holds its classes twice a week, Wednesday and Friday, and decided to discontinue classes until after the first of the year, when they will move into the school house here in Lyons. It was also decided to see if a permanent teacher may be found, which would relieve the mothers. They will hold a Christmas party at the community club house Wednesday morning, December 21 with a book gift exchange. Any pre-school child may attend the party by bringing a gift exchange. The project is for each child to bring home-made ornaments to help trim the Christmas tree. Present for the meeting were Mrs. Art Olmstead, Mrs. Floyd Johnson, Mrs. Charles Power, Mrs. John Pradeaux, Mrs. Dyingier, Mrs. Lancer, Mrs. Stander and Mrs. Fred Lindemann.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston Kathryn and Kenton, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Humphries and children and Jack Johnston went to Lebanon Sunday where they attended the 49th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Surry.

Mrs. John Neal was called to Albany to serve on the jury for this term of court.

Shirley Johnston spent the weekend in Monmouth as a guest of her sister Carroll Johnston, who is a student at the College of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Miss Beulah Lewis were Sunday visitors at the Wilbur Johnson home in Sweet Home.

An exchange of ministers was held Sunday among the Methodist churches, with Rev. Morange of Stayton delivering the morning sermon here. The sermon was followed by a potluck dinner and fellowship hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Putman, who have been living between Mehama and Stayton, moved the last of the week to the Appletree court in Fox Valley. Mr. Putman is the sixth grade teacher in the school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Fox of Midvale, Idaho visited friends in Lyons Monday forenoon. The Foxes were former residents of Lyons, having owned a grocery store and post office here. They were accompanied by their son Wayne, also of Midvale, and William (Billie) Elder, of Portland. Mr. Elder is also a former Lyons resident and now is living at the Odd Fellows home in Portland.

LITTLE ILLS MAKE BIG BILLS!

True, that "little illness" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc; not to mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
