GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP
"Announced by all the trumpets of the sky,
Arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
Seems nowhere to alight: the whited air
Hides hills and woods, the river and the heaven"
So, on New Year's day most Gates folks were content to remain at home by a cozy fire and live again, in retrospect, the pleasant days just spent; days when relatives and guests had joined with them to make the holidays the gayest season of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. James Overlock and daughter Kathyline, of Seattle who had spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, left for their home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Varcoe visited in Tillamook over the New Year holiday, at the home of her father, Mr. Darrel Stewart.

Mrs. L. M. Hill of Seattle and Miss Mary Lee Hill of Richland, Wash. were holiday guests at the Theodore Burton home. Mrs. Burton is the daughter of Mrs. Hill and sister to Miss Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saunders were Christmas day guests in Salem at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul and Mr. and Mrs. Tex Allen attended the New Year eve C.B.I. party in Mill City. Both men are employed in the office of the Consolidated Builders Incorporated.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Sheperd, who were joined by their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sheperd and daughter Beverly of Idaho motored to Tillamook to spend the Christmas festive season at the home of their son and brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sheperd.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Millsap, who had visited at the home of his uncle, Albert Millsap for the past two weeks, left Friday on the Shasta Daylight for their home in Woodland, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Wise (Florence Carrycott) of Portland were recent guests at the Clarence Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Frisch and two children of Portland were Gates visitors one day last week, calling at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Millsap.

The Frisches were former residents of Mill City where he was employed in the office of the Mill City Manufacturing company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Richards had as their New Years caller, Al Munro of Salem. Munro, who was formerly employed by the Seitzinger logging company, was seriously injured in a car wreck a year ago in January and only released from the hospital in October. His wife, Mrs. Munro will be remembered as Miss Jean Dawes, of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards spent Christmas day in Mehama at the home of their grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hearing have moved into the Tucker house just West of town. Hearing operates the local barber shop.

Cecil Haun, the most seriously injured of those surviving the wreck of the crummy which plunged over the cliff above the dam site, was brought home from the Salem Memorial hospital the day before Christmas. Haun is reported to be recovering from his injuries satisfactorily but slowly. According to Mrs. Haun, "he is up and down" though mostly down," due to his extremely weakened condition.

New Year weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner were her son and family from Salem Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boaz and three children, also William Boaz, another son from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith motored to San Francisco, December 20, to spend Christmas with Gessner's sister and with Mrs. Smith's mother and sisters who live in the city. They returned December 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilman Rains and son Tilman were guests several days in Sweet Home at the home of her son and family Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cline.

Mrs. William Wight spent the holidays in Portland at the home of her daughter Mrs. Laurence Betterton.

Mrs. Louisa Roney was hostess at her home Christmas day. Dinner guests were, her mother, Mrs. Rosa Roten, William Wight, Benny Conard and Mrs. Mary Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison and son Gerald spent the weekend in Alesia at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Follett and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Follett. They report a much heavier snow fall there than here at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Siltala were guests in Salem New Years at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dywer.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosheim of Gates have moved to Willamina where he has accepted a position as general superintendent of the Garbrandt and Investment company.

A "Gut-Hammer" is the gong used to call loggers to meals.
The name "Old Glory" was given to the American flag by Captain William Driver, Salem, Mass.
