

MEHAMA

By JEAN ROBERTS

Ivan Darby plans to be a good distance from snow and ice for the remainder of the winter. He left for eastern Oregon last week to join his brother, and from there they plan to drive to Florida for a three month vacation.

Ollie and Ray Adams spent several days last week hunting for their hounds who were lost on a recent trip into the woods. After being gone several days, the dogs returned of their own accord.

Leon McCarley left the last of the week for Montana after receiving a report that his wife is ill. She has been visiting her parents in that state.

A new truck to replace the station wagon delivering meat on the Mehama to Marion Forks run was put into operation Saturday by Myran Fender local butcher. The truck also carries fresh vegetables.

Nineteen young people braved the snow and stormy weather to indulge in a coasting party at the Ray Roberts home Sunday. They were transported by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook, Mr. and Mrs. Horace McCarley and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Roberts.

The Home Extension meeting that was to be held last Friday was postponed until Monday January 23. Because of snow and bad weather it was feared that only a few would be able to come.

Mrs. Harry Monroe and Mrs. Ira Kirsch attended a meeting in Salem last week to hear the report of Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaffer spent the week end in Salem on business and to visit Mrs. Schaffer's mother.

Thursday and Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank New and daughters, were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lee of Medical Lake, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Storey and children and his mother, Mrs. Frank Storey, returned Monday morning from a two-week vacation trip into Calif. and Arizona. They visited Mrs. Frank Storey's sisters in Phoenix, Arizona, and in Long Beach, Calif., where she remained while the younger Storey family visited Mrs. Storey's mother in San Diego. They experienced some hazardous roads and found three feet of snow and their water pipes frozen on returning.

Edison Vickers, Mrs. John Rone and the Clyde Storey children have been ill the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Haley and sons were Friday night to Monday morning guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reynolds.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Ray went to their home in Detroit and charivari them Sunday night. The young couple were married in Washington, December 28.

Floyd Fox who recently returned from a trip back east where she attended the meeting of the Home Demonstration council. Only unit officers were invited.

Mehama school children would like to request parents who bring their children to school, to please let them off at the foot of the hill, when there is snow on the ground. All the school children like to coast and the hill near the school is the only available place.

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Just how the heck, I'd like to know, can you expect, with all this snow, when no one comes and no one goes, but all stay home with a runny nose, poor me to write, betwixt the blows, the local news in verse or prose. I say, old top, my toes are froze, but, darn it all, now here I go:

There has been quite a few cases of flu here the past week. "Bing" Duboise, foreman of the Rogers Construction company has been confined to his home with the disease.

Fount Paul, who is employed by the Consolidated Builder's company has been at home, ill with the flu since just after the new year.

Mrs. Ed. Kadine who was called to Wisconsin by the death of her father has returned to her home. She was accompanied by her daughter on the trip.

James Moore, one of the most seriously injured of those who went over the bank with the crummy, and who has been hospitalized in Salem since the accident was brought home the day before Christmas. The Moores live on the old Schroeder place three miles east of Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Siltala and daughter have moved to Salem, their former home. They have been employed in the Garrison cafe for several months and resided in the Oak Park motel.

Mrs. William Rames, manager of the Oak Park motel has been confined to her home this week with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Einer Skinnerland who for several months have resided in the Oak Park motel have secured a place in Mill City and moved this week. Skinnerland is employed in the office of the C. B. I.

Miss Norma Jean Devine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Devine has accepted a position in the Mill City State bank. Miss Devine is a local girl, and attended the Gates schools, graduating from the high school a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and daughter Carolyne have returned

FOX VALLEY

Rev. and Mrs. Tom Courtney of Mill City were business visitors here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas called at the Chifford West home early Tuesday to see their daughter Waunita, who stays with the Wests while she is attending Mill City high school.

The Thomases were returning from Trail where he was to work with a road construction company, but the snow halted work there. They were enroute to Browns to spend two months until his government work opened up again. They did not like the damp climate they encountered at Trail.

Roy West of Salem spent Sunday with his son and family here. Mrs. West is in the east on a visit with relatives. She went to Drumright, Ind., in December and plans to get home the last of January. A letter from Mrs. West last week stated she would be in Oklahoma visiting her daughter for a while yet.

The Clippell Monthe Lumber company have been running on rather broken time during the past two weeks. Trucks have not been able from a trip to Klamath Falls where they visited at the home of her daughter and family, Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Jensen. They were accompanied home by Miss Norma Devine who had been visiting relatives in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McKain recently from Calif. have moved from the Rainbow Trailer court to the Adam's court. Mrs. McKain is a sister of Mrs. Elmer Stewart of Gates.

A toboggan party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush the first of the week. Those who gathered around a huge bonfire and enjoyed the winter sport were. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel and son Gerald Harry and Dave Barnhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison and son Gerald and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Rush. While most of the guests coasted Mr. Volkel and son skied.

DETROIT

By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT

Robert Leis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leis, arrived in Detroit recently from Canada for an extended visit with his mother. He also stopped over several days in Hood River on his way down to visit his father, who is working there.

J. E. Fry left Friday evening by bus for Sears, Calif., to see his mother, who is in ill health.

Mrs. Oliver Johnson who had returned home from the Salem Memorial hospital about two weeks ago was again taken to the hospital on Saturday. She will remain for further observation.

Mrs. Arlie Dickey was taken to Salem Memorial hospital on Thursday January 5 for medical treatment. Her husband visited her there on Monday.

haul lumber from the Elkhorn mills that usually supply the planer.

Marvin Berry made two trips to Boise, Idaho, last week. He reported the weather plenty cold but there wasn't much snow beyond Bend. Berry hauled lumber to Boise.

TAKE THE WHEEL OF A '50 FORD

Yes, 10 minutes at the wheel will introduce you to the wonderful "feel" and amazing, sound-conditioned quiet of the '50 Ford. You'll discover the comfort of Ford's "Mid Ship" Ride... its bump-erasing "Hydra-Coil" and "Para-Flex" Springs... its 35% easier-acting King-Size Brakes.

'YOU'LL SEE THE DIFFERENCE'

'YOU'LL FEEL THE DIFFERENCE'

'YOU'LL HEAR THE DIFFERENCE'

There's a Ford in your future...with a future built in Only Ford in its field offers a V-8... a new, "hushed" V-8 engine (the type used in America's costliest cars). It's so quiet you can speak in whispers. Yet it sells for hundreds less than all other "eights"... even hundreds less than most "sixes."
