Rockets Win Over Valley Team 39-38

The Mill City Rockets, home town team, met the Aumsville cagers last Monday night on the Aumsville floor to squeeze through with a 39 to 38 victory.

Aumsville began the evening's score with the first two field goals but Mill City was able to gain a slim lead at the half when the score read 17 to 13.

R. Johnson and J. Boyle tied for top honors in the scoring field with four field goals and the completion of one free throw each giving them both a total of nine point for the evening.

Aumsville bucket honors were distributed among three of the players with seven points each for the evening.

John Seim, Aumsville high school coach was the official for the evening.

The Rockets continue to hold the league lead. They will meet Burroughs Inn n ia game scheduled for Tuesday night in Mill City.

Junior Cagers Trip Opponent

The Junior Cagers from the Mill City grade school have dropped their opponents with precision having lost only one tilt to St. Mary's, Coach Vernon Todd reported today.

The grade school has been playing two teams, comprised of the 7th and 8th grade and the 5th and 6th.

In the vie with St. Mary's the A team trailed by three points at the final gun with the score at 17-14. The young maple team from Mill City lost the game through their inability to convert their free throws, making only two out of 11 opportunities, while St. Mary's converted four out of eight free shots given them. It was not, however, a league game.

The B team won their contest with a score of 8 to 3.

'Wolves Eagles Thrill Crowd in Overtime Tilt

The Mill City Timberwolves met Stayton's Eagles Wednesday evening on the home floor and gave the cheer section little time to catch their breath with the final score 35-33 for the Timberwolves after two overtime periods.

Bob Baltimore dropped in a lay-in for the winning points for Mill City. The game was even throughout with the quarter scores reading 13-13, 15-15, 22-21 in favor of Stayton, and at the end of the regulation game it was 29-29. However, with only a minute remaining in the first overtime period it was 33-29 in favor of the Eagles. At this point Lawrence Thornley dropped in two buckets to again tie the game at 33 all. Stayton gained possession in the second overtime but Baltimore stole the ball for the winning bucket.

Ollie Muise again lead the scoring for both teams with 11 points, despite the fact he fouled out midway in the fourth quarter.

The Mill City "B" squad wasn't as lucky as they dropped a 42-16 game to the Eagle Jayvees.

Sockeye Salmon Released at Odell

The Oregon State Game commission has received 300,780 landlocked sockeye salmon eggs for hatching and eventual liberation in Odell Lake. The young sockeye salmon will be reared at the Willamette Fish Hatchery near Oakridge and liberated in Odell Lake following the ice break-up this spring.

Sportsmen have been favorably impressed with the fishing provided by the Odell Lake sockeye which feed extensively in the surface waters during the spring. Most of the sockeye, also known as yanks or bluebacks, in Odell Lake mature once every four years, stated Dr. John Rayner, Chief of operations for the fisheries division of the Game commission. At maturity the sock-

'Wolves Cougars Re-schedule Game

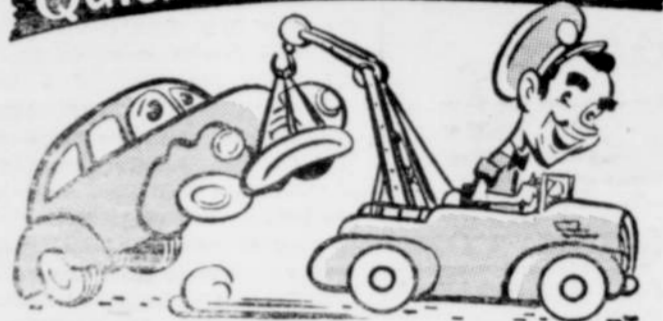

The scheduled basketball game between the Mill City Timberwolves and the Detroit Cougars has been rescheduled. The original date was Tuesday, January 31, but the date was changed to make a break in the schedule before the all important Aumsville encounter Wednesday night. The game will be played on the Mill City floor. The preliminary game will begin at the usual time of 7:15 with the varsity game following at 8:30.

eye spawn and die, completing their life cycle. The Game commission hopes to establish a sockeye population in Odell Lake that has fish reaching maturity each year.
