ELKHORN

By ELSIE MYERS
The Elkhorn children were very much elated Thursday by a visit to the school by Mr. Vernon Todd of Mill City. He presented them with both a volley ball and a soft ball.

Steve Dark, Bill Bickett and Ike Muers met with Ben Little of the Benton-Lincoln Electric Co-operative at Corvallis Tuesday in regard to getting power up as far as the Elkhorn Guest Ranch.

They received a promise that a survey for a line extension would be made soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Dark attended the funeral of Grandma Coleman in Portland last week. Mrs. Coleman had lived with her husband for a short time in a little cabin on the banks of the Little North Fork, more commonly known as "The Miner's shack."

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Longnecker and Billie spent the weekend in Silverton at the home of Mr. Longnecker's mother.

Mr. Bill Bickett received word recently of the death of his grandson, Alvin Dean, in Texas. The child had been stricken with meningitis and while he had immediately been placed in an iron lung, only lived three days.

Mrs. Mary Patrick spent the week end in Mehama and Silverton with friends.

Mrs. Steve Dark and Durwood were callers at the Ike Myers home Saturday. Sunday guests at the Myers home were Mr. and Mrs. John Neal of Lyons. Mr. Lawrence Worley of Molalla and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Myers of Oswego.

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP
Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hearing were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kemp of Pasco, Washington. Their visit was cut short by the news of the death of Mrs. Kemp's mother, Mrs. Lucy Beebe in Summerville, Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards who left early last fall on an extended trip by auto, through California and Arizona have returned to the state.

For the present they are making their home in Salem. Mrs. Edwards is the mother of Norman Garrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Moses, formerly of Mehama have moved to Gates and are occupying an apartment in the Oak Park motel. Moses is employed as a heavy equipment mechanic with the C.B.I.

Other new comers to Gates are Mr. and Mrs. George Melkko of Stayton. They will reside in the Oak Park motel, it is reported until they can erect a new home on property recently purchased. Melkko will operate the new Union Oil station when it is open for business.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchel and family were Portland visitors over the weekend. They attended the wedding there, Saturday evening of one of their sons.

Mrs. Frank Saunders went to Salem Thursday where she was the guest of friends, returning home Sunday.

A. D. Scott, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Larry Shelton drove to Salem last Friday for a combined business and shopping trip.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Park from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, former residents of Gates.

Mrs. Lula Collins was surprised Monday when Mrs. Theodore Burton, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Glen Hearing, Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Mrs. Frank Saunders and Mrs. Albert Millsap called to spend the afternoon. A no-host luncheon was served by the ladies, assisted by Mrs. Dan Dinsmore of Anchorage Alaska who was a visitor at her mother's home. Mrs. Collins has been closely confined to her home for several months as the result of injuries sustained in a fall at her home.

FOX VALLEY

Miss Carol Johnston with two of her school friends were over the weekend visitors at Carol's home here. Saturday afternoon the girls enjoyed bicycle rides sightseeing. Those visiting at the Johnston home with Carol's folks with Nell Coats and Alta Hadley, with Carol, Shirley and George Johnston. They rode their bikes to Taylor's grove, east of Mehama and hiked from there to bald cliff above the river and enjoyed a good view of the valley.

Robert Thrailkill of Lyons was a Fox Valley business caller the first of the week. The Thrailkill family recently moved here from Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cunningham of Canyonville visited her sister Jaunita Thomas, Sunday, and also with friends in Mill City.

Mrs. Floyd Bassett entertained the county extension club women of this locality at her home Tuesday. A luncheon was enjoyed. Mrs. Huber and Mrs. Bassett demonstrated luncheons and serving. The two ladies were leaders for the project. The weather prevented them from going to Albany earlier for instructions on the subject but their demonstration was interesting. Fifteen ladies attended the Tuesday meeting. The next meeting will be held at the Lyons community hall, the 2nd Friday in March. Australia will be featured on a talk by the county agent, along with other items.

Be sure your match is out before you toss it into wooded areas.
