Lyons Woman's Club Meet at Community Club

The Womans club held their meeting at the community club house, Thursday afternoon, with a large attendance. Mrs. Alice Huber was in charge of the business meeting. Many plans were made and discussed for the organizing of a garden club. A committee of six; Gertrude Weidman, chairman; Agnes Brotherton, Golda Brassfield, Mary Fink, Gladys Kuiken and Ethel Huffman was appointed to make a set of by-laws before the next meeting. It was voted to hold the garden club meeting the fourth Thursday of each month. The club also voted to do some quilting, with anyone wishing to quilt may come to the clubhouse every Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Nina Westenhof of Jordan garden club was the guest speaker of the afternoon telling many helpful hints. At the close of the afternoon, cake and coffee was served to Mrs. Nina Westenhof, Mrs. Elizabeth Westenhof and Mrs. Limbeck all from the Jordan garden club. Attending from Lyons were Mesdames, Mike Fink, Doc Jungwirth, Clarence Jungwirth, Merrill Brassfield, John McClurg, Don Brotherton, Otto Weidman, Willard Hartnell, Clinton Hubbard, Percy Hiatt, Lyle Kinzer, Oscar Naue, George Huffman, Lynn Lambert, Clyde Bressler, Alice

Lyons Methodist Make Special Easter Plans

The Methodist church school will observe Easter with the following program; musical reading, "At the Feet of Jesus" by Joyce Hargreaves, accompanied by Mrs. Hargreaves; "Roll Along the Chorus", junior and senior high school choir; reading, "O Lively Garden of the Lord", by Carol Kruse; "Prayer", adult choir; "Easter Exercise", Judy Kunkle, Shirley Mohler, Jeanette Huffman; "Phantom, ten junior girls; Resurrection Morn", junior and senior choir; Exercises by the primary department; Scripture reading, adult class; song by the congregation followed by Benediction.

Easter Sunrise Service will be held on the E. L. Royce hill at 6:30 a.m. There will be special music by the chorus, accompanied by Cecil Bassett on the accordion. A breakfast will be served at the community hall at 7:30. The worship service will be held at 11:00 a.m. with special music by the choir.

A special impressive service has been planned for Good Friday, April 6th, at the Methodist church when Holy Communion will be observed.

Huber, Gladys Stiffler, and Anna Johnson.

Easter Styles Reveal Miladys Bulge

Push yourselves away hungry from the table, girls.

Easter fashions this year are a poor deal for you ladies who love to eat. That's the word from Miss Murle Scales, O.S.C. extension clothing specialist, who adds that it's a noble idea to apply the tape measure and step on the bathroom scales before promenading your Easter outfit.

The comparatively inactive winter months, with rich foods have a way of expanding a trim size 16 into bulging 18 or 20.

Spring lines and designs in milady's wardrobe are more simple this year, and, consequently, require a better figure to set them off well. Winter styles with more frills and whatnots tended to hide figure bulges. Not so, this spring. Plain dresses and little detail put new emphasis on weight control.

New, shorter skirts are just so much bad news for the ladies with a tendency toward extra weight. The higher skirtline, Miss Scales explains, will make many short women appear shorter; plump women, plumper.

Dress fabrics are soft and feminine this spring with pleats as the only decoration used on many of them. Colors tend toward the gay side—just added reason to keep weight down. Proper eating habits and diet will also help make a clearer complexion, especially desirable when wearing a yellow dress or one of the so-called wheat colors.

Here's Miss Scales' rule of thumb to check your weight to see if it's within bounds: If you were satisfied with your average weight between ages 25 to 30, take that figure. Add 20 percent to it. If you weigh still more, cut down on the calories—you're overweight.

To check underweight, subtract 10 percent of your satisfactory weight. Below that—have an extra helping of butter and cream. It will do you more good than harm.

Minton Stork Shower

Mrs. Charles Powelson entertained at her home Thursday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Merl Minton. Following an informal afternoon, Mrs. Minton was honored with a stork shower. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Powelson to Mrs. Merl Minton, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. Frank Barney, Mrs. Eldon Hutchison, Mrs. Clyde Golden, Mrs. Walter Kay, Mrs. Roy Pate, Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, Mrs. Elmer Shaw, Mrs. Henry Bayless, and Mrs. Eugene Kindred.

LYNS THREE LINKS

The card party sponsored by the Three Links club and held at the Rebekah hall, Saturday evening, was attended with 500 and pinochle in play. High scores in 500 went to Mrs. Earl Allen and Elmer Hiatt, low to Mrs. Bob Free and Earl Helmen. High scores went to Mr. and Mrs. John McClurg. The Three Links club will also sponsor a party dance to be held at the hall, Saturday evening, April 15.

VINCENT CHIVARI FRIDAY

A group of neighbors and friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vincent Friday night with an old fashioned chivari. After much noise, the group were invited in where Mr. Vincent passed out cigars and candy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent were recently married at Vancouver, Washington. Mrs. Vincent came from her home in Boston, Massachusetts.

BREAK POLITICAL TIES

A newspaper must free itself from "blind and continuous loyalty" to a political party, no matter what it may be to achieve real independence." Richard Neuberger, state senator of Oregon, told the Northwest; Editors and Writers conference in Pullman, Wash., last month.

Extension Unit Attend Homemakers Festival

Several from the Lyons Home Extension unit attended the Linn County Homemakers Festival held at Sweet Home Monday, April 3. Those making the trip were Mabel Downing, Helen Johnston, Garnett Bassett, Betty Johnston, Vivian Walworth, Beatrice Hiatt, Lola Lambert, Alice Huber, Anna B. Julian, Gertrude Weidman, and Evelyn Julian. Mabel Downing was installed as president of the Lyons unit; Betty Johnston, Vice president and Helen Johnston, secretary-treasurer. The Home-maker's Festival passed review of the outstanding projects of the first five years in Linn county. The review climaxed a three year project in sewing. The first year the unit members made cotton dresses; the second year, the making of better dresses from woolen materials; the following year, tailoring with approximately 875 completed; which made Linn county sewing projects one of the largest in the state. Other projects were making of footstools, and repairing on inner spring cushions in davenports and chairs.

EASTER MOTIF AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Clarence Rush was hostess, Thursday afternoon, honoring her daughter-in-law and infant daughter, Mrs. Lyle Rush of Salem at a luncheon.

Seated at the table, at which the Easter motif was used as decorations were the honored guest, Mrs. Lyle Rush, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and son Billie and the hostess, Mrs. Rush. Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. William Athey and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge were unable to attend.

REGISTRATION TO VOTE CLOSSES APRIL 18—IT IS YOUR PRIVILEGE

Isn't it amazing what a wonderful difference color can make in your home? The women in our neighborhood have discovered such an inexpensive way to get fresh new colors, that I thought you'd like to know about it.

It all began two weeks ago when Mrs. Jonson was expecting a visit from her mother-in-law. She'd just painted her guest room walls a soft grey and planned to buy new furnishings. But, as she put it: "The budget ran dry!" Well, to the rescue came her own automatic washing machine, a few dime packages of all-fabric dye and a bulletin of instructions issued by the Tintex Home Economics Bureau of New York City . . . and when her guest arrived, there were crisp pink curtains at the window, a matching pink bedspread, two navy blue rugs on the floor—and the easy chair had a fresh navy blue slip cover. The complete transformation cost less than $2.00!

Mrs. Jonson simply dyed the furnishings she already had with all-fabric dye. So easily, too—she just put the items into her washing machine, let the water run in, then added the dye she'd mixed in a pitcher of hot water. When the washer had run through its regular course, including the final rinse, the tinting process was complete, whereupon she hung the pieces to dry, ironed them and put them back in the room!

That guest room simply glows with color . . . and now, we're all following Mrs. Jonson's example—tinting our furnishings and bulky wearables right in our washing machines. The results are simply amazing. And it's such an inexpensive way to rejuvenate every room—as well as your wardrobe—that I know you'll want to try it, too!

Hinz-Poole Nuptials At Salem Church

At a 3 o'clock ceremony on Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist church Miss Lloyd Hinz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hinz of Vancouver, Wash., became the bride of James I. Poole, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Poole of Mill City. The Rev. Brooks Moore officiated at the nuptials before a setting of pastel spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white gaberdine suit with navy blue accessories and a pink straw hat adorned with pink flowers and veiling. She carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Miss Ginger Copeland was the honor attendant and Miss Judy Hinz and Miss Jan Hazlett were bridesmaids. Richard Turner served as best man and ushers were Lester and Laurence Poole, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Hinz chose a brown faille suit with green accessories and a corsage of roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Poole's gown was of grey and her flowers were roses.

A reception was held in the Carrier room with the newlyweds greeting their guests, Mrs. Willow Farmer, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. James Story cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Homer G. Lyon, Jr., Mrs. Ransom Carpenter, Mrs. Patricia Lehto, Mrs. Floyd Scott and Miss Suzanne Hinz.

After a wedding trip the couple will
