Grappling Event for Canyon Sport Fans

Sport fans will converge on the Mill City theatre Wednesday night to view an outstanding wrestling card.

The card, to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will feature well known matmen, as well as local talent. Nickovitch, Schnable, Kallio, and Adree, will be among the featured muscle men of the evening.

The main event will be a tag team match between August Nickovitch and Otto Schnable vs. Aimo Kallio and Andree Adree. The event will last an hour and half or will go to the best two out of three falls.

Special event of the evening will be a match between Herman Vigeland of Silverton vs. The Masked Marvel.

Also scheduled for the evening will be local talent. This event will feature some of Mill City's youth in an exhibition boxing bout. The young athletes were not announced this week.

Ninety-seven percent of drivers involved in automobile accidents in the U. S. last year had at least one year's driving experience.

Male drivers in 1949 were involved in more than 90 percent of all U. S. automobile accidents.

Camera Fans Called For Meeting

A call to all camera fans was issued this week by a fellow fan George Steffy of Mill City.

Steffy reported a brief survey revealed that the canyon has many persons interested in photography and that they expressed a desire to form a club to exchange ideas and further interest in the field.

All persons with an interest in photography were asked to get in touch with George Steffy, P. O. Box 421. Steffy will in turn notify each person of the date of an organization meeting. With the Santiam canyon offering some outstanding photographic scenery, such a new organization would prove to be an interesting one.

GRANGE MEETING

The regular meeting of Santiam Valley grange was held at the hall Friday evening. Routine business was carried out. Ray Gill a member of the state executive committee was the guest speaker of the evening.

Hector McPherson from Morning Star grange presented Santiam Valley grange with a pennant for being the outstanding grange in Linn county. Several members attended Pomona grange held at Crowfoot grange Thursday evening, April 6, taking the degree.

Timberwolves Drop Second Start

BY THAD ROBERTS

The Mill City high Timberwolves dropped their second game of the 1950 baseball season, 13 to 3, to the Jefferson Lions. The game was played on the Jefferson field.

Mill City scored first in the opening inning on a single by Harlin Gibson and a double by Leo Poole. However, the Lions tied it up in their half on the inning with doubles by Morris and Brown. Jefferson jumped into the lead in the second frame as Marlatt was safe on an error and Porter and Reeves followed with singles. Jefferson had their beginning in the third as they scored five runs. Brown was safe on an error, Davidson singled, Thomas was safe on another error, Marlatt singled, and Porter and Reeves followed with doubles and the five runs were in.

Mill City got one run in the fourth when Lawrence Poole singled, Thornley walked, and when Thomas tried to pick Poole off second he threw the ball into centerfield with Poole scoring the Timberwolves second run. However, Jefferson picked up four more runs in their half of the fourth

Do You Have A Saw?

If you own woodworking equipment you may be the person that the industrial committee of the Mill City Chamber of Commerce is looking for. Committee members are now registering all persons who own such things as table, ban, jig saws, shapers, planners, dadoing machines etc. Owners of such machines were in the potential profit field, the committee stated.

Whether your equipment is now in use or not, if you are a resident of the canyon send your listing to: Industrial Committee, in care of P. O. box 421, Mill City, Oregon.

BALL TEAM WANTS COMPETITION

J. T. King announced this week his 8th grade sandlotters are in the market for competition.

The young ball players have been holding their own practices and have played practice games among themselves. King stated the boys were anxious for competition and said they would challenge an opponent in either softball or baseball.
