DETROIT

By MRS. J. A. WRIGHT
Mr. and Mrs. Willard (Fitz) Goodman and son Bobbie Reed of Estacada were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Cal. Schlador on Saturday night, and that evening Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson were dinner guests at the Schlador home in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Goodman. On Sunday evening the Goodmans and Bob stayed overnight at the Earl Parker home.

Mr. and Mrs. David Laughren have as their house guests their daughter, Mrs. R. G. Braydon and children Judith, David and Kathleen of Detroit, Michigan.

Mrs. Willia Vealy had a bridge party on Wednesday afternoon. There were two tables of bridge with Mrs. Ron Bellwig winning the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis White spent several days in Portland this week where Mr. White attended the O. E. A. The other three high school teachers, Mrs. Ed Hanan, Miss Arcola Pettit and Stanley Whipple also attended the educational association. The entire school had a weeks Easter vacation.

John Davis went to Bend during vacation to get some dental work done.

Jean Chrisman rode down from Portland, Wednesday, with Mr. and Mrs. Irwin when they returned home and will spend the remainder of the week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chrisman.

Nine members were present when the Womens Civic club met at the home of Mrs. Major Baughn on Wednesday evening. One guest, Mrs. Pat Crawford joined the club during the evening.

Five delegates were elected to attend the Federation of Womens clubs to be in Silverton, April 28. They were Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. S. T. Moore, Mrs. L. L. Rynearson, Mrs. Gordon Skidmore, and Mrs. William Vealy. The president Mrs. Ray Johnson expects to attend, and also Mrs. J. Cal. Schlador who is a member of the legislative committee of the county federation.

A nominating committee consisting of Zetta Schaldor chairman and Janet Nelson and Opal White was appointed by the president.

The club voted not to send a girl to Girls State this year as they have not been able to have a dance or anyway of raising money this year. There was a report from the Librarian that there are nearly 900 volumes in the library now and in spite of bad weather many people have used the library this winter.

Visiting was enjoyed after the business meeting and late refreshments served by the hostesses Mrs. Baughn and Mrs. Delmar Nelson.

The next meeting of the club will be on April 18, at the new home of Mrs. L. L. Rynearson.

Earl Stahlman will return home this week from Oak Ridge where he has been several weeks scaling logs for the forest service. Their son Jimmy spent a few days this week with his father.

Mr. and Mrs. John Estey spent the weekend in Salem, attending the dog show on Saturday.

Joseph Wright who had an operation on his spine Tuesday at Salem Memorial hospital is making satisfactory recovery and expects to return home on Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Howland who had major surgery at Salem Memorial hospital recently has been taken to her sisters home in Springfield where she will remain while convalescing.

Peter George Peacock who has been ill for sometime was found critically ill at his home here on Tuesday morning and was rushed by ambulance to Salem, but died on the way down. He is survived by a daughter Bertha, 16 years of age, and a mother, sister and brother all of Newaygo, Mich.
