Rev. Clarence Harms from Belleflower, California will conduct the special services on Friday night and on Sunday, Rev. Wayne Watkins, pastor of the church announced.

IDANHA

By REBA SNYDER

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Evenson and family, Salem, were weekend Idanha visitors. Eddie celebrated his birthday with dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Clark and family, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lierman and baby of Stayton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hallford and baby.

Arnold R. Snyder, of the Gen. H. B. Freeman, flew home from Seattle Friday night to spend a couple days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Snyder and his brothers, Donald and Leonard.

Mrs. Anna Girod, Salem is visiting in the home of her son, Lloyd Girod and family. Girod returned home Friday, from a week campaign in the valley.

The Baldwin car caught fire Monday noon due to faulty wiring, with little damage.

Dude Renner is improving nicely. A pick used to remove rubbish from the school grounds was run through his finger, just nicking the bone, while clearing the grounds last week. He was treated by the local physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Brown went by bus Friday evening to Bend, where they spent a couple days with Brown's daughter, Mrs. O. G. Nichols and family.

Darlene Storey has for the past week been suffering from Trench mouth, her condition is much improved. She is being treated by our local physician, Dr. Willcut. Other cases have been reported.

Mrs. Homer Shaw and daughter, Grants Pass, Oregon, came Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. Harold Perton, who is quite ill in the Salem Memorial hospital, and her mother and another sister, Mrs. Nina Tucker and Delphine and two brothers R. L. and Frank Tucker.

Jack Ward and wife, agents from Salem for the Miracle Maid aluminum ware cookery company of Chicago, served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Even Evenson, Friday night a ham dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Athol Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Frank New, Mr. and Mrs. James Gordon and the hosts. Mrs. New drew a prize of a frying pan and the hostess was given a larger one.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perton are the parents of a 7 and a half pound boy, born in the Salem Memorial hospital, Thursday, April 20. Mrs. Perton's condition was not good Friday and Saturday but is much improved and able to return home Tuesday.

SANTIAM Fraternal Order of Eagles 2745 meets at Ladies Auxiliary Hall each Tuesday at 8 p.m.

CARE HEADQUARTERS

CARE food and textile orders for persons in Europe and Asia can again be forwarded through Portland headquarters, according to Mr. Edward Flynn, west coast director of CARE, the Co-operative American Remittances to Europe.

Arrangements have just been completed with the Oregon Council of Churches to handle all orders for CARE coming from Oregon. Full information on the many varieties of CARE packages may be obtained by writing CARE, 215 SE Ninth Ave., Portland 14, Oregon, or by telephoning EAst 3544.

Low Income Farm Loans

Loans to low income farmers are available at the Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, at 4 percent interest for periods up to 33 years. These loans are for people who cannot get financed elsewhere, and whose farming and other income show that they can pay off the loan as scheduled.

There is no money for refinancing present obligations, as all money is appropriated for new houses, barns, etc., and for repair or remodeling of present structures.

Applications are now being taken for Linn, Lincoln and Benton counties at the Farmers Home Administration office in Room 222, Post Office Building in Albany.

The County Supervisor, Martin H. Baker, is in the office only on Tuesdays, but the office is open daily, Monday through Friday.

The applicant must have a deed to the land on which the construction or remodeling is to be done. However, in many instances a second mortgage will be accepted by the Farmers Home Administration as security for the loan, said Baker.

If the applicant can bring in tentative plans, or a rough sketch, showing the type of construction, estimated cost, along with title evidence such as a deed or mortgage, a great deal of time will be saved.

WHO CALLS HOOVER A 'YOKEL' and Why!

An Open Letter to S. Eugene Allen Editor of the Oregon Labor Press

Dear Gene:—It is common knowledge that no-one in the state of Oregon thinks less of Wayne Morse than you do. Time and again Joe Battaglia, Heinie Detloff and the others around the table at Hilaire's have heard you denounce Morse as a "commie" sympathizer and political racketeer.

Why, then have you used the old, familiar "commie" smear technique in the last two issues of the Oregon Labor Press calling Dave Hoover an illiterate and unintelligent "yokel"?

You know better, Gene. You know that Hoover has had three years of law training and is well informed on world and domestic problems. He takes short-hand fluently and is an expert typist.

We know why the Labor Press called Hoover a "yokel" Gene. Because, like most of the rest of us, you have to work for a living. Your bosses at the Labor Temple have had their orders from the big labor bosses in the East.

When our advertising man tried to buy space in the Labor Press to answer the scurrilous and unfounded attacks on Hoover you told him "nothing doing." You had your orders on that, too. What about Freedom of the Press, Gene? And what about Freedom itself? Will America continue to be free when the labor bosses and bureaucrats take over? Right now the labor bosses are tapping the rank and file of union labor $2 per head nationally to put up a slush fund for their pals like Morse—an estimated $15 million dollars.

We never heard of the membership of a union being given a chance to vote on such things. The labor bosses pick who they want to throw their support and the membership's money to. Do they regard their own Union members as "yokels"?

Are you calling Hoover a "yokel" in the Labor Press, Gene, because he owns and works a 400 acre farm in Lane county? According to "Who's Who," Jim Marr, executive-secretary of the Oregon State Federation of Labor "began as a farm laborer." From the same source we learn, Gene, that your first job out of college was with a farm implement concern. Kelley Loe, political "brain" at the labor temple was born on a farm. Charles L. McNary and Abraham Lincoln were also born on the farm. Would you say they were "yokels"?

Have you forgotten, Gene, that America was built by men like Dave Hoover who were not afraid to go out into the country and work with their hands? Those pioneers who came to Oregon in covered wagons carried an axe in one hand and a Bible in the other and they didn't need anybody with foreign "isms" to tell them how to lead their lives from the cradle to the grave. Were they "yokels," Gene?

Maybe there's a reason why the boys on the big city dailies are poking fun at "Deadwood Dave." They all belong to the Newspaper Guild which is affiliated with the CIO. Have you seen the issue of the CIO News for January 2, 1950 which lists Wayne Morse as the only "Republican" senator with a perfect record of voting for CIO-sponsored measures? Gene, we know you take your orders from the labor bosses, is that where Morse gets his orders?

Well, Gene we know the spot you are in. Oregon is on the spot, too. It will be six years before the people of Oregon will get another chance to vote on the office Morse now occupies in the U. S. Senate.

Maybe this is the last chance the rest of us "yokels" will have to wake up before the labor bosses and the bureaucrats put a yoke around our necks for good!

After all, if only a pinko college professor who has never had to meet payroll, who has never worn his country's uniform in time of war and who has fed at the public trough since he got his college diploma in Wisconsin is the only type of man qualified to hold public office in this country all we can say is GOD HELP AMERICA!

DAVE HOOVER: Born in 1898 on a farm in Wayne County, Indiana, of Quaker parentage. After leaving the "little red schoolhouse" attended Richmond, Indiana high school, immediately following graduation, enlisted in the U. S. Army on May 6, 1917. Following war service, was employed by cotton exporting firm at Ardmore, Oklahoma. Moved to Los Angeles in 1923. Employed in law enforcement by Los Angeles county. Attended Southwestern University Law School 1930-1932. Resigned from his Los Angeles County law enforcement position in 1942 after making outstanding record and returned to farming at Deadwood, Lane county, Oregon. Member Dairy Herd Improvement association and deeply interested in the advancement of agriculture and the dairy industry. Long a student and supporter of good government.
