Master Kelly Honored

Johnny Kelly was honored with a birthday party at his home, Friday afternoon, April 28, on his fourth birthday.

During the afternoon, Mr. Kelly took moving pictures of the children while at play. Johnny received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, the birthday cake having been cleverly decorated to represent a merry-go-round by his grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Robinson.

Attending the party were Jeanie, Carl Hall, little Patrick, and Mrs. Carl Kelly, Stephen, Allen and Mrs. Vernon Todd, Mark Sheythe and Mrs. Don Sheythe, Bobby Hill and Mrs. Bob Hill, Johnny Kelly and Mrs. Charles Kelly. Dropping in later were his sister, Lela Kelly, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill.

Eighth Grade Students Visit Portland Museum

Portland historical museum in the civic auditorium was the focal point of 8th grade students from Mill City last Saturday.

Miss Evangeline Shattuc, teacher of the 8th grade accompanied her class. Driver Bill McCoy took the group in the school bus.

Points of interest to the pupils were a real covered wagon which came across the plains; the anchor and chain of Captain Gray's ship; a lock of Mrs. Whitman's hair, and the tomahawk which was used to kill both Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Whitman.

Following the sight-seeing in the museum the group went to Washington park where they enjoyed a picnic lunch and saw animals in the zoo.

Making the trip were Miss Shattuc, Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCoy, Gerald Wilson, Jim Johnson, Jim Cuthbert, Janice McGraw, Phyllis Albright, Rosella Thomas, Betty Craven, Virginia Timm, Carol Blazek, Mary Jo Wolverton, Donna Bengston, Frances Johnson, Alfred Ward, Richard Verbeck, Janet Brinton, Bill Gorman, Jackie Roberts, Benny King, Betty Newsome, May Brower, and Richard Lovell.

A man is in general better pleased when he has a good dinner upon his table than when his wife speaks Greek.

High School Playday Draws Canyon Girls

The Girls Athletic association of Mill City high school sponsored a "playday" Saturday with girls attending from Gates, Detroit, and Mill City.

The day activities started at 10 a.m. and ended at 4:30 p.m. The program for the day consisted of registration, mixers, games, races, treasure hunt, potluck lunch, softball, square dancing, tennis and the presentation of awards.

The girls were divided into six groups for games and group six received the highest honors. Miss Hope Baney is G.A.A. Advisor.

Lunch was prepared and served by the food committee, Dorothy Downer, Alona Fay Daly, Patricia Cree, Anna Mae Nelson and La Vetta Powelson. The lunch was furnished by the Mill City G.A.A.

Games and races were in charge of Wilma Howe, Betty Cree, Joan Johnson, Joanne Hoffman, Donna Nelson, Barbara Barton, Luella Mason, Ardith Jones, Paula Van Buskirk and Jane Peterson. Making the name tags and programs were Patricia West, Marlene Verbeck, Marlene Tickle, Hazel Neal, Betsy Kriever, and Arlene Kuhlman.

Mayday is Theme For Deanha P.T.A. Dance

A dance, given by the Deanha P.T.A., Saturday evening at the school auditorium, netted the association over $100.

The May Day theme was used for the elaborate decoration. A huge May-pole centered the floor topped by a large basket of flowers. Pastel crepe-paper streamers were used on the pillars headed by large hand-painted flowers.

Mrs. Eli Bangs and Mrs. Pat Steele were responsible for the decorations aided by many of the school children. Tables were placed at the sides, centered by lighted candles and hand-painted menus. The tables were attended by school-girl waitresses dressed up in pastel aprons and caps.

A group of Mongoid musicians furnished the music.

BLUEBIRDS-CAMPFIRE GIRLS TO SELL CANDY AT BENEFIT

A candy sale will be sponsored by the third grade Bluebirds and the fourth grade Campfire girls during Thursday night's PTA benefit movie "Scott of the Antarctic".

Proceeds will be used to improve the buildings at Camp Killowan.
