Ragsdale-Murray Vows Exchanged Friday Evening

Exchanging vows in a quiet ceremony Friday evening were Franklin Earl Ragsdale and Marjorie Murray, both of Mill City.

The nuptials took place at the home of the groom's parents. Attending Miss Murray was Mrs. W. M. Penick. The groom's brother, Ronald E. Ragsdale acted as best man.

The Rev. T. Courtney, Jr. performed the ceremony.

Friends and relatives of the couple smiled approvingly as the couple cut the lovely wedding cake at the reception that followed.

Let no man think he is loved by any when he loves none. — Greek proverb.

The buck privates may not get too much credit, but they still are the ones who win the wars.
