IDANHA

By MRS. FRANK NEW
Due to the illness of so many of the children, the piano recital to be given by the students of Charlene Hanan last Thursday evening was postponed. The recital will be held this Thursday May 11th at the grade school library at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The Adult class of the Idanha Sunday school, is having a "chili" party this Saturday evening at the CCC camp in the building formerly used by the Sunday school.

Twenty Boy Scouts from Troop 43 of Idanha and Detroit, took part in the parade and Circus held at Salem Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heibert and son Harold Ray went to Dallas Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. Heibert's sister who is taking a short leave from her missionary work in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Haley drove from Camas, Wash., Sunday morning to attend church at Idanha and visit with their son Eldon Haley and family. Eldon Haley is student pastor at the Idanha Community church, and comes from Northwest Christian College in Eugene.

Mrs. Heffley and sons Ollie and Frank Fox of Salem, spent Saturday and Sunday with the Carl Schaffers. Mrs. Heffley is Mrs. Schaffer's mother. Also at the Schaffers for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hallford and daughter.

Bill Bodie who has been visiting at the Albert Snyder home the past week has left to spend some time in San Francisco.

Reba Snyder returned to her home Tuesday from the Salem General hospital where she has been recovering from an operation.

Dinner guests at the Athel Savage home last Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Sowa, Mr. and Mrs. Willy Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rone and daughter Linda.

Frank Ray, who has been in the Salem General hospital for some time returned to his home last Friday.

Truck Overturns Near Idanha

A truck driven by Bob Gwynn, driver for the McCune Food Sales Co. of Salem, overturned on the North Santiam highway Thursday forenoon.

The accident occurred about six miles east of Idanha near the turn-off leading to Whitewater Creek. The truck slide some distance on its side, but did not go over the steep embankment. The driver escaped without any serious injuries.

GATES FIREMEN

The second of a series of dances to be sponsored by the Gates Volunteer Firemen was held Saturday evening in the local gymnasium, with a good crowd in attendance.

The next dance will be given in two weeks, May 20th. All profit from the dances will be used to purchase fire fighting equipment.

A gentleman is one who expects much from himself but little from others.

FOX VALLEY

Gordon Jollener of Mehama has been employed several days at the Ray Peterson place making some repairs on the sewer and drain systems.

Mrs. Hugh Johnston was hostess for a home products demonstration party at her home Wednesday, May 10th at 2 p.m.

The Big Star motel is another addition to the nice places to live in our vicinity. There are three of these modern motels now in operation which helps to solve the housing shortage to some extent. Several new homes are under construction also. Two of the new houses are located on the highway east of Kings and are very neat small homes being built of plywood cores, giving them a sort of "log cabin" look, with the green trees as a perfect background. Several home sites located on highway 222 are offered for sale and no doubt more new houses will be added to the expanding list.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Limbeck were Monday evening visitors at the Bill Kergil home in the twin cedars district.

A moments carelessness can undo the work of a lifetime.

Put out your campfire before you leave the woods.
