Pineapple and Cheese Sandwiches

Pineapple and cheese slice sandwiches served open face style are a family luncheon treat that you'll repeat for guests. The flavors are proven favorites, and the sandwiches have an easy to achieve attractiveness that rates applause for you as an artist with food.

For perfect cheese slices buy half-pound packages of pasteurized process American in slices, wrapped and sealed right after pasteurization in the food plant where they are made. Each half-pound package contains eight perfect one-ounce slices that separate easily. Cut the wrapper of each package through the center on three sides. Use slices from the center first. Close package, like a book, for easy protection of any unused slices. Choose these marvelously convenient packages of perfect cheese slices in a variety of flavors from your grocer's refrigerated case.

Pineapple Cheese Sandwich

- Round buns
- Mayonnaise
- Pineapple slices
- Maraschino cherries
- Pasteurized process American cheese slices
- Lettuce

For each sandwich, split a bun and spread each bun half with mayonnaise. Top one bun half with a slice of pineapple garnished with maraschino cherry cut in quarters. Place a slice of cheese on the other bun half. Arrange on a chop plate alternating the pineapple topped bun halves and the bun halves with cheese. Garnish the center of the plate with maraschino cherries in a nest of lettuce.
