Gates, Mill City Seniors Join in Baccalaureate

Mill City high school extended a cordial invitation to the Gates graduating class to join with them in baccalaureate services this Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Presbyterian church.

The mutual friendship between the two graduating classes was testimony to the faith of youth in their fellow beings.

The Rev. T. Courtney, Jr. will bring the evening address with Dr. David Ferguson reading the scripture.

MISS HUMPHREYS ENGAGED

Friends and relatives have received word of the engagement of Miss Betty Louise Humphreys to Gordon Scarborough, both of Myrtle Point. Miss Humphreys is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Humphreys.

Both Miss Humphreys and Scarborough are members of the junior class at Myrtle Point high school. No date has been set for the wedding.

Lyons Mother-Daughters Set Banquet Record

The mother and daughter banquet, an annual event sponsored by the Womens Society of Christian service, was held at the Rebekah hall, with the largest attendance on record.

Approximately 135 mother and daughters were served in a pleasing manner by the fellow men of the community. Potted plants were presented to Mrs. Catherine (grandma Julian) the eldest mother present, Mrs. Robert Carleton youngest mother and Mrs. William Prichard the youngest grandmother. Mrs. Agnes Booth, Marion county school superintendent was the speaker of the evening. Miss Marilyn Boltzer gave mothers

Mari-Linn P.T.A. Elects Officers

The Mari-Linn P. T. A. held their meeting at the Rebekah hall Friday evening to select officers for the 1950-51 school year.

Elected to be officers were: Mrs. Robert Fetherston, president; Thomas Putman, vice president; Mrs. George Huffman, secretary, and Mrs. William Prichard, treasurer. Plans were made for open house which will be held at the new school house Thursday evening, May 18. Mothers Honored at Afternoon Tea

A large group of mothers, teachers, and friends attended the second annual Mother's Tea sponsored by the Girl's Athletic association.

The tea table was centered with a bowl of red tulips and blue iris. Presiding at the tea and coffee urns were Elnora Albright, Patricia Cree, Anna Mae Nelson, and Jo Roy. The program consisted of the greeting to mothers by GAA president, Wanda Vandermeer; two vocal solos "Mother" and "You Are a Wonderful Mother" by GAA advisor, Miss Hope Baney; piano duet, "The Up-To-Date March", LaVetta Powelson and Paula VanBuskirk, Style Show; Lucia de Lamermoor, piano solo, Ardith Jones, "Summertime", "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers", "Dear Land of Home", and "The Rosary", by the Girl's Glee club; "There's No Tomorrow" and "Galaway Bay" by Betty Lou Cree; marimba solo, "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" by Maxine Scott; and "Indian Love Call", piano solo by Joan Johnson.

Members of the GAA who took part in the style show were Elnora Albright, Patricia Cree, Maxine Scott, Hazel Neal, Jane Peterson, Paula VanBuskirk, Donna Cooke, Dolores Poole, Arlene Kuhlman, Alona Daly, Lela Kelly. The fashion show was like a magazine and it was titled "Cotton Carnival" and as each girl in turn was ready to model her garment the page opened and she walked out into the room, showing her garment. Dresses, pajamas, skirts and blouses were shown. All clothes made were of cotton.

Hobbies were displayed for the mothers to look over. Displaying hobbies were: canning, Jo Roy, Anna Mae Nelson, Joan Johnson; baking, Patricia Cree; Knitting, Wanda Vandermeer, Mariene Verbeck, Alona Daly, Joan Johnson; embroidery work, Joan Johnson, Dorothy Downer, Patricia Cree; crocheting, Elnora Albright, Paula VanBuskirk, Jane Peterson, Patricia Cree; soap samples, Lela Kelly; puppets, Sue Mikkelsen; drawings, Ardith Jones; miniature dogs, Lela Kelly; salt and pepper shakers, Jo Roy, Beryl Mason, Wanda Vandermeer; storybook dolls, Betsy Kriever; cups and saucers, Betsy Kriever; and souvenirs of Scotland sent by a pen pal, Betty Lou Cree.

The mothers were seated at card tables about the auditorium and these tables were decorated with spring flowers. Hope that the tea would become an annual affair was expressed.

High School Students Hold Last Party

The high school tennis courts furnished the setting for the last party and dance of the school year honoring the senior class. Sophomores sponsored the party.

Colorful streamers and colored lights inside of lanterns decorated the court. Floodlights were turned on the words "Good Luck, Seniors" that were colored with spangles on a red background. The court was also marked off with colored ropes and on each post there were long balloons. Miss Hope Baney called for square dancing and the schottische was also enjoyed. Games were played on the lawns.

Refreshments of chili were served by Paula VanBuskirk, Patricia Cree, Elnora Albright, Maxine Scott, Jane Peterson, and Hazel Neal. Mrs. Mason helped the girls with the refreshments.

Dick Downer and Donald Ragsdale had charge of the music. Ardith Jones, Dolores Poole, Thad Roberts, and Gary Peterson took care of the games. In charge of decorating the court were Alona Daly, Lela Kelly, Denny Martalla, Delmer Skillings, and Jackie Jackson. A good number of the student body was present. Miss Hope Baney, Mrs. Harry Mason, and Mr. H. Bayless of the high school faculty were also present.

CAMP FIRE LEADERS

Mrs. Kriever, Mrs. Harman, and Mrs. Palmer attended a meeting of Camp Fire Girls leaders and sponsors at Camp Kilowan on Tuesday. It was an opportunity to become acquainted with the camp situation and learn a few outdoor skills for the Camp Fire Girls next year.
