

MEHAMA FARMERS UNION TO MEET MAY 26TH

Mehama Farmers Union held their meeting at the Women's club Friday evening. Steve Dark spoke on the coming election and urged everyone not only to vote, but study your candidates and measures carefully before voting.

A discussion was also held on child delinquency.

The next regular meeting will be held on May 26th. At this time a colored travelogue picture will be shown as well as an exhibit of articles made in the countries shown. The public is invited to attend.

CANYON AID GROUP

"Canyon Aid", a newly organized community group designed to help those in need in the Idanha, Detroit area, reported splendid community co-operation from the citizens, so stated the board of directors this week.

The organization to be of permanent nature were able to assist several needy families during the past winter. Contributions of money, food, and clothing are needed to carry on the successful work.

Put out your campfire before you leave the woods.
