BY MRS. SCOTT YOUNG

Mr. and Mrs. Don McNeil of Portland, Oregon, were visitors here on Saturday. They also made a trip in to their summer home on Marion creek to see what the winter had done to the cabin.

Visiting the Youngs, Sunday, were Mrs. Paul Matovich and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Matovich of Molalla, Oregon, and Mrs. A. Swarthout of Margum, mother of Mrs. Pete Matovich.

The Marion Forks Hatchery is nearing completion with the refrigeration system done and being tested. The hatchery itself is completed and the water lines about covered and the ponds done. The permanent dwellings however will not be completed for sometime. The hatchery is expected to be in operation this coming fall.

Harold Syverson, roller skating champion from Portland and his party stopped enroute from the Northwest skating meet in Idaho.

Lost Lake is out from under the snow and ice and bids fair to be a good place to fish. Better you bring you a rock of your own for the demand will be great from all indications.

John C. Young is now making his home in Portland where he is driving for West Coast lines.

147,000 Postal Workers Buy
U. S. Savings Bonds Regularly

Washington, D. C.—J. M. Donaldson, Postmaster General (above), today endorsed the Independence Savings Bonds Drive now underway. He said:

"United States Savings Bonds spell Independence for millions of Americans. They know that by buying these securities they are laying a solid foundation for personal economic security. I am glad to say that more than 147,000 Postal employees are investing a part of their pay every payday in U. S. Savings Bonds and it is hoped that many more will sign up for regular purchases during the Independence Drive. All who do so can be assured that they are on the right road to an Independent Future."
