Detroit Dam Softball Schedule is Set

Russ Hoffman and C. C. Davis have been invited to participate in the opening ceremonies for the first softball game of the season at Camp Mongold, Thursday, June 1st at 5:45 p.m. Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Davis are expected to be most satisfactory replacements for the President and Governor at these ceremonies.

This game is the first of the Detroit Dam Softball league, and brings together the Army Engineer's mighty Operations nine and the hustling CBI Engineers. Other teams in the league are: REOs (rodmen, engineers, office personnel of the Army Engineers), Mongold Little Shavers (high school boys of Mongold and Detroit), and Detroit (team from town of Detroit).

The CBI Engineers are men from in and around Mill City and half of their league games will be played here. The first one being against the REOs on Monday, June 12th.

Their front office will definitely not announce the starting pitchers until game time, but they have released the probable starting lineup, as follows: Simbeni, catcher; Nourse, 1st base; Lowry, 2nd base; Bengston, 3rd base; Nicholas, short stop; Bayless, left field; Lowry, center field; and Jensen, right field.

The CBI Engineers will play Detroit here on June 26; the Operations team on July 10, and the Shavers here on July 17.

Wrestling Card Next Thursday Night

Correctly advertised as a thrill to men and women in three big bouts will be the wrestling card scheduled at the Mill City theatre Thursday evening, June 8.

JUNE KELLY

The event will be recorded as the first occasion when the "delicate sex" took to the mat to prove their place in the athletic world before a Mill City crowd when June Kelly of Omaha Nebr. meets Thelma Jackson, Salem. Featured again in the preliminary bouts will be two Mill City youngsters, Gregory and Michael Peterson. Their appearance at Mill City's last event brought a hearty applause from the sports enthusiasts.

Weighing in at 129 pounds will be June Kelly of Omaha. She will face Thelma Jackson who will weigh in at 120 pounds.

The opening bout will be between Scar Face and Clyde Wells.

Whitey Douglas 170 pounds and Flash Diem, 166 pounds will comprise the main event.

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP
Mrs. Frank Saunders was hostess, at her home, to members of the Gates Woman's club, Thursday afternoon. An informal discussion of plans for the coming months was held. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, by the hostess to the ladies present, Mrs. Kay McCarty, Mrs. Wilson Park, Mrs. Laura Jouquin, Mrs. Albert Millsap, Mrs. Ace Johnson, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Glen Hearing, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Edward Chance, and Mrs. Walter Thomas.

The Commencement exercises of the Gates high school will be an event of Friday evening, June 2nd, at 8 o'clock, in the high school auditorium. Those receiving diplomas are Eileen Marie Eccleston and George R. Child, Jr.

The annual high school picnic was held last Friday. The day was spent in Portland at Jansen Beach and other points of interest. The students were transported in the school bus, Harold Wilson driving and were accompanied by several of the faculty.

Members of the local Boy Scouts, troop 45, who attended the Camporee at Taylor's Grove, on the Little North Fork of the Santiam Saturday and Sunday were Rex Herron, George and Jon Burton, John Barnhardt, Eddie Fields, Jerry Larson, Allan and David Vail, Otis Chance, Royal Schaer and Bobbie Masoner. The boys were accompanied by Dick Parker Saturday in the absence of the regular scoutmaster, Gale Carey. Carey joined the troop Sunday. George and Jon Burton received first class awards and Allan Vail and John Barnhardt second class awards at the Court of Honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Johnson and three children were in Salem for several days over the holiday.

Albert Millsap was called to Woodland, Calif., Thursday of last week by news of the sudden death of his brother, Wirt Millsap. While there Mr. Millsap will visit other relatives in San Francisco and Vallejo.

Mrs. Lula Collins was a Salem visitor several days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Sellard.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McCarty spent last weekend in Vancouver, Wash., visiting old friends. They were former residents of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saunders were Salem visitors last Tuesday. Salem was their former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis drove to Sheridan Sunday where they were the guests at the home of a cousin, Walter Davis. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKey in Amity. The McKeys were residents of Gates for a number of years.

Don't forget the concert to be given by the Stayton Choral club the evening of June 8, in the high school auditorium. A special program is being arranged. This program is a benefit for the fireplace fund of the Gates Women's club's new building. Refreshments will be served following the program. A small admission charge will be made, 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush over the weekend were their son and family Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush and baby Diane of Salem. Mr. Alex Robertson of Salem also visited recently at the Rush home. Robertson is Mr. Rush's uncle.

Among the out of town guests who attended the Wilson-Carey nuptials, Saturday afternoon were Mrs. Minnie Spoelstra, Mrs. Jack Spoelstra and daughter Janice Jean of Salem; Mrs. W. W. Wells and daughter Florence, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carey of San Francisco, Mrs. Everette Roby, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. E.
