Death Takes Elderly Citizen Linn County

Mrs. Martha Jane Chance, 89, passed away last Thursday at the Powell nursing home in Albany. She was a resident of Mill City and Albany during the past 17 years.

Funeral services were held last Saturday at the Fisher funeral home in Albany. Committment was at St. John's cemetery in Albany.

Mrs. Chance, a member of the Methodist church, was born April 20, 1861 at Kokomo, Indiana. She married Edward H. Chance in 1884 in Kokomo. Mr. Chance and one daughter preceded her in death.

Survivors include four sons, Jerry E. of Sweet Home, Lester Carl of Mill City, Eddie F. of Albany and Bruce A. of California.

Rev. Clark Wood of Idaho Falls, Idaho, a grandson-in-law, officiated at the services. Mrs. Glenn Taylor, soloist, sang "Abide With Me" and "Sweet Bye and Bye".

Pall bearers were Edward Chance, Kenneth Chance, Bud Chance, Cleo Chance, Eugene Carey and Jay Wood.

Burton Burroughs spent the weekend at his home. He is attending summer school at Eugene at the University of Oregon.

Installation Rites Held For Local Legion Auxiliary

Mill City's American Legion auxiliary unit 159 was officially installed and its members initiated last Thursday evening at the American Legion hall.

Fourteen members were initiated into the new unit while eight officers were installed. They are: Mrs. Kay Colburn, president; Mrs. Tearly Muir, first vice president; Mrs. Doris Jensen, second vice president; Mrs. Delores Hollingworth, secretary; Mrs. Nellie Stalman, treasurer; Mrs. Judith Ragsdale, historian; Mrs. Alice (Jean) Roberts, chaplain; and Mrs. Barbara Yarnell, sergeant at arms.

Other members initiated were: Mrs. Martha Ragsdale, Mrs. Margie Ragsdale, Mrs. Mable Bruder; Mrs. Audrey Strickler, Mrs. Delores Stewart, Mrs. Phyllis Flatman and Mrs. Ellen Ping. Mrs. Stalman was installed in office by proxy.

Mrs. I. N. Bacon, president of district two was mistress of ceremonies. She introduced Mrs. Leon Brown of Salem, past department president who delivered the obligation; Mrs. Mae E. Whitcomb, secretary for the auxiliary department of Oregon who presented the local unit with its charter, and Mrs. Robert N. Krasson, candidate for department vice president who was honored in the organizational formal program.

The installation team of the Silverton auxiliary installed the officers of the local unit. A large delegation from Silverton was on hand for the ceremonies.

Idanha and Stayton were also represented at the installation ceremony.
