

Circus Headed Mill City Way

Moving into Mill City for a one-show stand on Sunday, July 23, is the Seal Bros. circus.

Erecting their tented city on the Red Thomas addition on the Linn county side, the circus will present the performance at 2 p.m. in the afternoon.

Streamlined from front door to backyard, the circus promises American amusement lovers the finest in circus talent and entertainment.

Among many features with the Seal Bros. circus are the beautiful and highly trained liberty horses presented by their trainer Bud E. Anderson. The DeKohl trio promise a classic in the art of juggling. Acrobatic and horizontal bar routines will be presented by the Wells brothers.

Other acts include the Marmolejo troupe in trampoline; thrilling aerial ballets; Chief Keys and his company of Choctah Indians in knife throwing, shooting and roping acts requiring skill and grace; and the ponderous performing pachyderm named Babe topping the animal exhibition.

The circus promises to bring to Mill City scores of trained and educated ponies, monkeys and dogs. Fun-making clowns are scheduled to delight children of all ages.

Intelligent Dog To Bring His Set Of Stunts to Mill City Theatre

"Twinkle", a talented canine of undisclosed breed will be featured in special stage shows to be presented along with regular movie fare at the Mill City theatre here Tuesday and Wednesday nights, announces Bob Veness, manager.

The act, billed as "The Three T's and Twinkle" includes the dog doing some 25 stunts, ranging from balancing acts to variations of hoop jumps. The T's include man, wife and son. While the man acts as the dog's trainer, his wife performs pantomimes and the son sings cowboy songs.

Performances are scheduled at 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Film fare includes Larry Parks and Evelyn Keyes in "Renegades".

If all the gold in the world were melted down into a solid cube it would be about the size of an 8-room house. If a man got possession of all that gold—billions of dollars worth, he could not buy a friend, character, peace of mind, clear conscience, or a sense of eternity.—Charles F. Banning mother and father and every boy and girl of high school age or older.

"Street Corner"---

Curtis Hayes, noted commentator and lecturer, will appear in person on stage during each performance. His brief but interesting talk on social hygiene and sex education is a highlight of the show.

Nurses will be on duty in the theatre during all performances as a precautionary measure to care for those who faint during the showing of the medical sequences.

Strangely enough, past performances show that more men than women are so-affected by the film.

Because of the delicate nature of the subject matter in "Street Corner", the picture is shown to segregated audiences only.

Performances for women and girls of high school age are at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. The showing for men and boys of high school age are at 10:30 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Conductors, Food---

Returning to our train at Livingston, we resumed our railroad journey. We moved out of Montana into South Dakota and to Alliance, Nebr., where we marched around town. After a fifteen minute stop everyone lined up for roll call before we boarded the train for Hannibal, Mo.

At Hannibal we visited the Mark Twain museum after breakfast at the Hotel Mark Twain.

We made a short 100-mile trip to St. Louis where we saw the famous St. Louis zoo. We choked down our lunch in 90 degree heat.

Our troop was then divided into patrols. Each patrol could do what it wanted. Most of us looked at the zoo and then went swimming. After a refreshing swim, we toured the amusement park, going on rides, etc.

We attended a light opera "Rosalie" in the park's huge amphitheatre. Our evening meal consisted of two rounds hamburgers and root beer.

In Cincinnati, we ate breakfast and attended a church service given by the Wayside Chapel, a portable church unit.

As I write this, we are detouring the flood waters of the Ohio river on our way to Washington, D.C. In the nation's capital, we will stay overnight in a hotel, before continuing on to the jamboree.

The food on this trip is good but there isn't too much of it. I have one gripe: We have had scrambled eggs every morning so far.
