Baby Conference Set for August 15

Plans for a joint four-community "Well Baby Conference" were announced Tuesday by LaVon Kriever, local chairman of the local health department committee. The conference is sponsored by the Marion County Public Health department.

Detroit, Gates, Idanha and Mill City will participate in the conference scheduled for Tuesday, August 15 at the high school recreation room. Any pre-school youngster can be brought to the conference for free examinations and immunizations. If the August conference is well-attended, conference will be held quarterly for the upper canyon communities.

Appointments will be necessary for the August conference. Mrs. Charles Harman will take appointments in Gates and Mill City. La Velle Hase-man of Idanha will take appointments in the Detroit-Idanha sector.

Present plans call for Detroit and Idanha to participate in the conference in the afternoon while Mill City and Gates children will be handled in the morning.

Couple Surprised By Housewarmers

Mrs. Ernest Graham and Mrs. Lester Mason arranged a surprise housewarming party for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, Sr. who recently moved to their new home east of Mill City from Lyons. Calling hours were from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Sweet peas and roses decorated the rooms. A buffet supper was served.

The group presented the Goochs with an electric Universal coffee urn. Music was furnished by Delbert Jenkins, Mode Davis, Ed Davis and Mrs. J. A. Duncan of Salem.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, Sr. and their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, Jr. of Sweet Home; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gooch and Twyla of Salem; and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Duncan (Sylvia Gooch) of Corvallis; Mrs. Gwendolyn Johnson and Judy of Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Mrs. Gill Coats and son of Portland; J. T. Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. Lillie Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap all of Gates; Mrs. Alta Bodeker, Mrs. Eva Bressler, Mrs. Effie Heineck, Lyons; and from Mill City, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Morriss, Mr. and Mrs. Mode Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George Flook, Mr. and Mrs. Ingle Johnson, Steve Honek, John Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Lestre Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Graham, Mrs. Rose Daly, Mrs. Bess Vandermeer, Mrs. Bertha Shepherd, Mrs. Rosa Roten, Mrs. Ida Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kelly, Miss Daisy Geddes, Al Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Slaton, Mrs. Mary Russell, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Boughman, and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jenkins.

Double Wedding Held Saturday

Exchanging wedding vows Saturday evening at the Christian church were Miss Sonnie Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoffman and Kenneth Chance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Chance all of Mill City and Miss Juanita Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Thomas of Bend and Jack Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stewart of Mill City. Rev Thomas Courtney, Jr., officiated at the rites.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Sue Mikkelsen and Miss Jane Peterson in black and white dresses.

Preceding the ceremony Kirk Wierick sang "Always" and "Because" accompanied by Ardith Jones who also played the wedding music.

Ushers were Bill Hoffman, Jerry Swan and Jack Scott.

The couples exchanged their vows before the altar with baskets of white lilies at the sides.

Preceding Miss Hoffman to the altar as bridesmaid was her cousin, Miss Le Anna Worland of Albany, in a forest green satin gown with white accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Miss Hoffman's father gave her in marriage. For her wedding she chose an off white suit, with red hat, shoes and scarf. She carried a bouquet of white glads tied with satin ribbon.

Eugene Carey of Portland acted as best man for his brother-in-law.

Mrs. Marvin Cunningham of Cannonville was Miss Thomas' bridesmaid. She wore a forest green satin dress matching the other bridesmaid with white accessories and flowers.

Miss Thomas' father gave her in marriage. She was dressed identical to Miss Hoffman.

Jerry Stewart was best man for Jack Stewart.

Mrs. Hoffman wore a forest green gown with beige accessories.

Mrs. Thomas wore a navy blue dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Chance chose all black and Mrs. Stewart wore a brown and white print dress with brown accessories.

The mothers all wore corsages of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room.

Mrs. Eugene Carey of Portland, sister of Mr. Chance, and Mrs. Jane Peppering of Stayton, aunt of Miss Thomas, cut the wedding cake.

Miss Sue Mikkelsen presided at the punch bowl and Miss Jane Frances Peterson presided at the coffee urn.

Mrs. Clifford Young of Portland and Shirley Worland of Albany passed the guest books.

In charge of the gift tables were Gloria Forland of Albany and Mrs. Delores Stewart.

Three members of the bridal party were members of the graduating class of 1950 from Mill City high school, Mr. Chance graduating with the class of '43.

Both couples will make their home in Gates. Mr. Chance is employed at the Detroit dam and Mr. Stewart is associated with his father and brothers at Stewart's grocery.

The Chances spent their honeymoon in northern California and southern Oregon and the Stewart's spent theirs at the beach.

ROSS APPOINTED RECORDER

Lee Ross has been appointed recorder and bookkeeper for the city of Mill City, according to an announcement by Mayor Al Toman last Tuesday.

Wrote Dwight Morrow once to his son: "The world is divided into people who do things and people who get the credit. Try, if you can, to belong to the first class. There's far less competition."—G. G. Bernard.
