GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saunders have sold their home and property which includes Moors Grove to Mr. and Mrs. Leora Kuhlman and family of Mill City. The Kuhlman's have a daughter, Arlene, and two sons, Charles and Ronald.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders moved to their new home in Salem Tuesday. Salem was their home before coming to Gates about a year ago.

Kenneth Dike of Spokane visited his father, Otis Dike, and his sisters, Mrs. Edward Chance and Mrs. Ted Stiff several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stiff drove to Portland recently taking their two children for a vacation with relatives. "Corky" Meisinger of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wiltsey, spent the past two weeks at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Henness. He returned to his home Sunday.

George and Jon Burton, local Boy Scouts who attended the Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, returned Friday evening. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Burton met them in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frichtl and four children from San Bernadino, California visited last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Anna Nystrum, and with other relatives here and in Mill City. Mrs. Frichtl was formerly Ruby Nystrum.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zeller of Scio and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rebhan of Dallas were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison.

Barney Barnhardt and Filson Park made a recent trip to the coast where they went deep sea fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. George Melike and daughter spent Sunday of last week at the Breitenbush hot springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKey and son, former residents of Gates and now of Portland, were in town one day last week renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Rush and son of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush and daughter of Salem were recent over the weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush. The men all took a trip to the lakes fishing while here.

Mrs. Lula Collins had as her house guest the past week her granddaughters, Mrs. Filliam Whalen of Anacortes, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Harley Elkins and daughter, Shannon of Portland and her great grandson, Michael French, of Anchorage, Alaska.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shelton and daughter, Barbara of Salem, were Sunday visitors at the home of her father, A. D. Scott.

Guests over the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap of Portland with Betty and Robert. Sunday guests were their son-in-law and daughter

Grandma Wouldn't Have Believed It

Shades of great-grandma's day! Pity the poor homemaker who had to work in this dull and backbreaking kitchen. Imagine the steps wasted in moving dishes from the old fashioned sink to storage shelves in another part of the room. And look at the exposed waste basket and the space consuming dishpan and drainer under the sink.

No need to pity the homemaker now. Her modern kitchen saves many hours of hard work. The cost was low because installation of standard steel cabinets and cabinet sink was done quickly without expensive room alterations. Not even the plumbing was changed. Wall tile and a light above the sink are helpful features. There is a lot of work surface on the porcelain enameled top of the steel cabinet sink and on the adjoining base cabinet top. There's lots of storage space inside, too. Dishes are washed in the sink bowl and the dishpan has been consigned to the trash pile.

and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Kleecker of Stayton. Mrs. Henrietta Quinn of Seaside was dinner guest at the Millsap home one day last week.

Mrs. Joe Joaquin has returned to her home from the Salem memorial hospital where she was confined for several days last week with a severe case of poison oak which she contracted while the family was on a fourth of July picnic. She is much improved but still "scratching."

MRS. SAUNDERS LEAVES GATES
GATES—A farewell party and handkerchief shower complimented Mrs. Frank Saunders at her home Thursday evening. A group of friends surprised her there to wish her joy in her new home in Salem. The evening was spent informally. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Saunders, Mrs. Theodore Burton, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Glen Hearing, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. W. R. Hutchison, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Lincoln Henness, Mrs. Elmer Stewart and Mrs. Albert Millsap. Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Floyd Voikel and Mrs. Kay McCarty, unable to attend, sent handkerchiefs.

TURNIDGES TOUR THE WEST
GATES—Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and daughter, Caroline, have returned from an extended motor trip which took them through ten states and into old Mexico. They spent the first night away from home at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Carl Jensen, in Klamath Falls. They stopped in Reno and Las Vegas, Nevada; saw Boulder Dam; attended an Indian powwow in Flagstaff; viewed both the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone park, and stopped in El Paso before passing into Mexico. They also spent some time in Salt Lake City where they visited the Mormon Tabernacle.

The Everett, Pa., Republican hits the Truman administration for promising "gain without work". Maybe they want the slogan reversed "work without gain".

Success used to indicate superior ability, but now people merely wonder what vitamin you're taking—R.Q.

LITTLE ILLS MAKE BIG BILLS!

True, that "little illness" you've been mentioning in an offhand way, may not seem to amount to much—just a few faint symptoms. But, neglected, these "little ills" can lead to big bills for doctors, medicines, etc. Don't mention needless suffering and loss of precious time. Consult a Doctor now—you'll save by it in the end. And, of course, we hope you'll bring his prescription to us for careful compounding.
