Nelson-King
Nuptials Held

The Presbyterian church was the scene for the wedding of Miss Marian King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell King and Sonny Mac Nelson, son of afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dr. David J. Ferguson officiated at the nuptials.

Lighting the tapers were Paula of Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson on Sunday Jane Van Buskirk in pink satin and Arlene Kuhlman in light blue net over satin.

Kirk Wirick sang "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Bless This House" accompanied by Mrs. Donald Sheythe who also played the wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin styled with high neckline and off the shoulder effect. Tiny buttons were from the neckline to her waist. The lace edged finger tip veil was held in place by a small crown. Mrs. Donald Nelson, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a pink figured organdy gown and carried a bouquet of orchid "mums".

Lela Mel Kelly in a pale blue net was bridesmaid. She carried pink mums.

Donald Nelson was best man for his brother.

Ushers were Ernest and Leroy Podrabsky.

Mrs. King chose for her daughters wedding a navy blue ensemble with white accessories.

Mrs. Nelson wore a two piece linen colored suit with brown and white accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation hall. Mrs. James Swan served the cake. Mrs. John Swan presided at the coffee urn and Lela Kelly was at the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Clayton Baltimore, Kuhlman.

Mrs. Donald Nelson passed the guest book and at the gift table were Mrs. Cloyd Cox and Mrs. George Crook.

Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home near Tillamook where the groom is employed.

CALLED TO PORTLAND

R. L. Faust of Mill City was called to Portland today to be at the bedside of his nephew, Dr. H. H. Faust, Corvallis physician, who was reported near death with a skull fracture and a broken leg in a Portland hospital following an airplane crash on the Chehalis mountain near Newberg yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kay smile over their wedding cake after having taken their vows, Friday, July 28. Mrs. Kay is the former Delores Elaine Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Brewer of Portland. Mr. Kay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kay of Mill City. Rev. Tom Courtney officiated at the ceremony in the Mill City Christian church. The couple will make their home in the Thomas addition.
