Local Miss Returns from CAP Summer Encampment

Doreen Ward returned from Cheyenne, Wyoming where she has been attending summer encampment of the Civil Air Patrol at Francis E. Farren Air Force Base in that city. Twenty-five girls from various parts of Oregon and southwest Washington were in attendance. The girls flew back from the encampment in two of the giant C46 transports.

The girls studied flying first aid, use of parachutes, search and rescue, jet flying, meteorology, navigation, marksmanship, link-trainers, military drill and courtesy.

Doreen reports having a good time along with her studies. She hopes that a Civil Air Patrol Flight unit can soon be established in Mill City. Doreen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ward recently moved to Mill City from Woodland, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farmen spent Sunday at Clear Lake and report the fishing good. They had a nice catch of trout to prove their story.

Pioneers Hold Annual Picnic, Elect Officers

Lyons—The annual pioneer picnic was held at the Mehama school grounds Sunday, August 27, with about 90 present, Jack Richard president was in charge of the meeting, and new officers elected for 1951 were Floyd Seigmund, president; Homer Speer, vice president; Lula Beringer, secretary and Luther Stout treasurer. Edgar Waters who was a teacher of the Mehama school in 1898 gave a very interesting talk, and six who attended school at that time was present. Leon Barrick of Salem was in charge of the memorial service and gave a short talk and his quartet sang "Beyond the Sunset" in honor of those who have passed on. William Surry of Lebanon who celebrated his 90th birthday anniversary August 20 was the oldest present. There were 12 present in the age bracket of 75 to 85 and six over 85. A basket dinner was held at the noon hour and the afternoon was spent in visiting and talking over old times. Several numbers were sung by the quartet, and the day was dismissed by singing America.

Timm-Muise Exchange Vows Friday Evening

At an eight o'clock ceremony Friday night at the Christian church, Miss Phyllis Timm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Timm, became the bride of Oliver Muise, son of Joe Muise of California. Rev. Tom Courtney, Jr. officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fredric Rugh sang "Oh Promise Me" accompanied by Miss Ardith Jones who also played the wedding march. The couple exchanged their vows before the altar banked with gladiolas in various shades.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Pat West of Lyons and Miss Marlene Tickle both in pastel blue formals. Miss Beverly Timm was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pink brocaded gown and carried white carnations.

Miss Virginia Timm another sister of the bride was bridesmaid. Her gown was of pastel pink net. Her flowers were also pink carnations. Little Susan Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Jenkins, and a cousin of the groom, was flower girl. Her dress was white.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin bridal gown fashioned with long sleeves, high neckline of net with a lace off the shoulder effect. Tiny buttons centered the back from neckline to the waist. Her lace edged fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of flowers. The bridal bouquet was of American Beauty roses.

Wiley Muise was best man for his brother and Ole Knutson, cousin of the groom, was groom's man. Ushers were Leo and Lawrence Poole.

Mrs. Timm, mother of the bride, chose a blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Delbert Jenkins attended her nephew's wedding in a navy blue dress with white accessories. She also wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room. Mrs. Anna Kahl, aunt of the bride cut the cake. Mrs. J. L. Davidson presided at the coffee urn.

Elnora Albright passed the guest book. Mrs. Gordon Kay and Mrs. Ford E. Wilson were at the gift table.

Mr. and Mrs. Muise are both members of the 1950 graduating class of Mill City high school. The groom was a star player of the basketball team and took a prominent part in other athletics.

The bride was Mill City's candidate for the Air Show Queen.

Following a wedding trip to Bend, Crater Lake, Gold Hill and other points of interest, the couple will reside in Mill City. The groom is employed by the T. and H. Logging Co.

Annual Home Coming Picnic Held at Mehama

Mehama—The annual Mehama home-coming picnic was held Sunday at the school grounds, with a pot luck lunch followed by a business meeting and entertainment. Approximately 90 persons attended.

The home-coming reunion dates back to 1931 and has been held each year since, with 12 members present Sunday who had attended every meeting.

The regular business meeting was called to order by Jack Richard of Stayton, president. Floyd Seigmund was elected president for the coming year.

On roll call there was found to be 12 persons present between the ages of 75 and 85. 6 people were over 85. Topping all present in age was Will Surry of Lebanon, who is 90.

A man's quartet from Salem's First Presbyterian Church furnished musical numbers. A memorial service was also held under the direction of Leon Barrick a former Mehama man and one of the quartet.

Several former Mehama school teachers spoke at the program, one of whom was Edgar Waters who taught in 1898. There were six of his pupils present.

Honeymooners in Smashup

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Muise had the misfortune and excitement of a car wreck on their honeymoon trip last weekend. The young couple visited Crater Lake, going through Bend, and making a loop. Slowing down for traffic near Roseburg, their car was hit from behind by a fast driver. Nobody was hurt but considerable damage was done to their car.
