

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klutke and two boys, accompanied by Mrs. Klutke's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Kirkland of Mehama were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Read in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush and daughter Diane, of Salem, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Scritchfield who have resided here for several months while he was employed on the Detroit dam left Monday for their former home in Port Chicago, Calif.

Hunting season is here again and among those planning to get their buck are Norman Garrison and his son Gerald. They will leave Friday morning for Lakeview, expecting to remain there until they are successful in their hunt.

Mrs. Albert Millsap spent several days in Stayton, this week, at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker. Mrs. Millsap was "baby-sitting" during the absence of Mrs. Klecker and daughter Janet, who were visiting in Portland at the home of Mrs. Klecker's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Levon, left Saturday for San Francisco to be gone 10 days. They will be guests at the home of his parents.

Due to the crowded condition of the Gates schools, it was found necessary to engage an extra teacher for the fourth grade. Mrs. Janet Harold of Stayton will fill the position.

Mrs. Boone of Lakeview, mother of Mrs. Dan Morrison of Gates is hospitalized in Portland where she underwent surgery Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George McBride Jr. are being congratulated upon the birth of their first child, a girl, born Sunday morning, Sept. 17, at the Salem Memorial hospital. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George McBride of Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Hutton of Kingman, Arizona.

A guest, this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miley, was Mrs. Miley's sister, Miss Mary Jane Bolmeier, of Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell purchased a new car in Salem last week and drove to Portland for the day. Portland was their former home. Their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell and Mike, were over the weekend guests at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Paul had as their guests over the weekend, Dr. Kreutzer, M.D.V. and Mrs. B. Kirkland, both of Portland.

Mrs. William Athey and four daughters of Lebanon were over the weekend visitors here at the home of relatives and friends. The Atheys were former residents of Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Johnson and family, formerly of Gates, now of Salem spent the weekend here as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Alexander are spending several days in Ashland where they are visiting at the home of Mr. Alexander's sister.

Word has been received by relatives here that Orville Hayward has been released from a Portland hospital,

Just Arrived . . .

A SON—To Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kimery on Sept. 22, at Salem Memorial hospital.

A SON—To Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stafford, Gates, Sept. 25, at Salem Memorial hospital.

A DAUGHTER—To Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ricketts, Mill City, Sept. 25, at Salem General hospital.

A DAUGHTER—To Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Livingston, Lyons, Sept. 27, at Salem Memorial hospital.

ROY ROGERS CLUB FORMED

Turnout to the Saturday matinee meetings of the Roy Rogers Riders club has exceeded all expectations, Bob Veness, manager of the Mill City theatre, reported today.

The club was organized two weeks ago under a charter presented to the theatre by Roy Rogers. Any child attending the matinee shows regularly is eligible to join, Veness stated. Many special events are planned for members, including awards for regular attendance and recognition of birthdays as they occur.

After almost a year's confinement there, and is now in Empire, where he joined Mrs. Hayward and two boys. Hayward can walk now, but with great difficulty.

DETROIT

By MRS. O. J. WHITE

(Editor's Note: This column was misplaced last week and therefore did not appear in print. We are sorry and shall not let it happen again.)

Freshmen initiation was held in the Detroit high school on Friday, Sept. 15. The freshmen wore unbelievably foolish togs all day to school and then returned for an evening party at seven, each of the fourteen freshmen putting on a stunt for the group. Those who were reluctant to cooperate were lathered well and shaved with a spoon. Donald Ketchum and Richard Hansen both receiving a shaving. The fun was followed by refreshments served by the sophomores. Mr. Stan Whipple is sophomore class advisor. Those attending the party were given free admission tickets to the Detroit theatre for the remainder of the evening, the party dispersing at nine.

The Detroit high school girls have challenged the Mongold women's team to a baseball game which will be played on the Mongold ball diamond on Monday evening at 6 p.m.

The North Santiam Willing Workers club met at the home of Mrs. Zella Ferris on Wednesday afternoon, with about 12 guests present. There was no special business but the women worked on garments for the needy. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Guests at the Ed Hanan home during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart is Mrs. Hanan's aunt.

Guests at the Ed Hanan home during the past week were Mrs. Hanan's aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stewart from Palestine, Ill. Guests for the weekend at the Hanan home will be Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hurst of Coos Bay and Mr. and Mrs. J. Danna of Portland, the Stewarts will return to Portland with the Dannas where they will spend a week before returning to their home in Illinois.

Mrs. Sylva Doran and son Patrick spent the month of August with Mrs. Doran's sister and family the Otis Whites. She has now returned to her home in Mountain Home, Idaho.

MILL CITY

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dike returned this week from a two-weeks vacation spent in Eureka, Calif., with Dr. J. E. Lindenmayer's.

Eugene and Lawrence Thornley left for Eugene to attend the University of Oregon. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Davis returned this week from a 2-week vacation in Dayton, Wyo., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dorothy, one time Mill City residents. The Dorothys live on the Horseshoe ranch near Dayton.

Chief of Police J. T. King left today for Medford to visit his father, T. J. King, who undergoes a major operation in his foot this Friday. Mrs. Alice Dell, Mr. King's sister, called and requested that he be with his father during the operation. If all goes well, Chief King expects to return to Mill City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hollingworth returned home Monday evening from Denver, Colo., where they had gone to attend the funeral of Mr. Hollingworth's father, Roy, who passed away last week in a Salem hospital. Returning home with them was George's brother, Roy Jr., who is on leave from the navy. The Hollingworth's son, Kent remained behind with his mother's parents where he will attend kindergarten.

J. W. GOIN VETERINARIAN

STAYTON
PHONE 4148

Opposite
Claude Lewis' Service Station

POLITICAL RALLY

OPEN HOUSE AT EPPS STORE

Friday Night, Sept. 29th

"Meet Your Democratic Candidates"

AUSTIN FLEGEL for Governor

For U. S. Representative

Roy R. Hewitt

FIRST DISTRICT

Dave Shaw

FOURTH DISTRICT

MARION COUNTY CANDIDATES:
FRANK PORTER for Senator
CORNELIUS BATESON for Senator
JOSEPHINE SPALDING for Representative
F. W. HALE for Representative
LARRY KOCH for Representative
ALVIN WHITLAW for Representative

LINN COUNTY CANDIDATES:
WALTER SHELBY for Senator
ELMER SAHLSTROM for Senator
DAVE EPPS for Representative
EARL MASON for Representative
AND MANY OTHERS.

FREE DRAWING

$100 Worth of Merchandise Given Away!

DRAWING STARTS AT 7 P.M. SHARP — MUST BE REGISTERED VOTER TO PARTICIPATE

Registrars Will Be Available - Everybody Come

Everyone
Welcome

Public
Invited

THIS SPACE DONATED BY EPPS FURNITURE STORE

Fall Festival--

(Continued from Page 1)

tite and Italian prunes and blueberries, Tony Moravec; Italian prunes, bartlett pears and king apples, Frank Basl; butter pears, seedling delicious apples, Cuthbert raspberries, date prunes and Campbell grapes, Albert Julian.

Vegetable winners: Early potatoes, slicing cucumbers, corn, Danish squash, red beets, corn on stalk, Albert Julian; stock pumpkin, table carrots, Kentucky wonder beans, George Berry; Lima beans, sweet meat squash, bonny best tomatoes, Tony Moravec; Hubbard squash, banana squash, pie pumpkin, white spine cucumbers and Oregon giant beans, Keith Phillips; cherry tomatoes and summer squash, Warren Hampton; field corn, Lloyd Sletto; wheat, oats and bent grass seed, Frank Basl.

Cecil Bassett and Melvin Peck tied for first place with their hobby displays. Wilson Stevens showed the best farm booth and Bellin's gardens the top garden booth.

Ramager's

GUARANTEED
WATCH
REPAIRING

Expert work.
Finest materials.
Work done promptly... and guaranteed. Let us give you a free estimate.

WATCHES
DIAMONDS
JEWELRY
FOSTORIA

Baker's
Mill City Jewelry

Model PF5046

Provides CLEAN, CONVENIENT, DEPENDABLE HEAT FOR EFFICIENT, LOW-COST COMFORT!

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE . . . It banishes fuel dust and dirt, saves dusting, mopping, curtain washing.

FOR THE MAN OF THE HOUSE . . . It means no labor in shoveling or carrying of coal. It eliminates ash removal and dust. Designed to efficiently heat 4 to 6 rooms. Listed by Underwriters Laboratories.

Come in and Inspect this Fine Heater at

Parker-Hutcheson Furniture

PHONE 5915

TERMS

GATES

Your "SILENT SIOUX" Dealer