FOX VALLEY

By MRS. J. H. JOHNSTON
Paul Johnston is employed at the Lyons Food Store as meat cutter while Mr. Brassfield is taking a week's vacation and has gone on a hunting trip. Mrs. Al Lanser is also clerking in the store full time. She has been employed part time at the store the past six weeks, since Mrs. Charles Power went to California for an extended visit at the home of her parents in Glendale.
George Clippell had his crop of oat and vetch seed hauled to the mill in Stayton Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vaughn of Tillamook were weekend visitors here with his Brother Fred Vaughn. Deer have been absent on most of the returning trucks and trailers. A lot of disappointed hunters this season. They just don't seem to find any deer to speak of. No doubt the severe winters the past two years has helped to thin the number to a minimum scarcity. In this locality there isn't any pheasants, quail, or even rabbits. Hope the weather isn't so severe this winter.

IDANHA

By REBA SNYDER
Lana Lee Storey was taken to the Dornbecker hospital in Portland, Sunday morning for observation. Mrs. Storey reported Monday that it was hoped that the tests and surveys would not take more than a week.
R. L. Tucker was the first man home with his buck. He left Monday morning about four and bagged his deer around eight. Others bringing home their game were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Alvin, Dorland and Huber Ray. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Boje and daughter Kay who moved here a short time ago from Corning, Calif., have moved to Salem where he is employed as a truck driver. Mr. Orin Perkins is assisting in the service station at present.
Alan and Jimmie Girod missed several days school last week due to illness. Alan returned to school Monday but Jimmie is not yet fully recovered.
Twelve members of the North Santiam Willing Workers club voted Wednesday of last week to hold their October 11 meeting in the Canyon Aid room in Detroit for the purpose of sorting the clothing gathered there. Those articles needing cleaning and mending will be taken home by members to be repaired.
Wednesday's meeting was in the home of Mrs. Gladys Streff. Visitors were Mrs. Betty Toepfer and Mrs. Evelyn Bowers, who joined the club that day and Mrs. Bob Jones and her mother, Mrs. Seaman, who is visiting here from Montana.
In the statewide sales contest of Zenith appliances, Lloyd Girod won second place. He has enough points to receive an electric vacuum cleaner, but stated that he would perhaps choose fishing tackle for Mrs. Girod and their sons.
Sunday guests in the Jerry Pittam home were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Britton and family of Mill City.
A miscellaneous household shower is being planned for the Don Farrow family. Watch in your grocery store for the time and place. Everyone invited.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Girod and family the past week are her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Patton of Long Beach, Calif.
The American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday of last week with Jean Cannon. Thirteen members were present and plans were made for the masquerade dance the last of the month.

During the first six months of 1950, 693 babies were born in Linn county. 358 were boys, 325 were girls.
