Toman-Pietrok Wed Thursday at Lyons

A beautiful fall wedding was held at the St. Patrick's Catholic church in Lyons Thursday morning at 8:30 when Miss Irene Toman, daughter of Joseph Toman of Stayton, became the bride of Clarence Pietrok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Pietrok of Lyons. The nuptial Mass was read by the Rev. Fr. Leaner Schneider of Jordan. Servers were Raymond Pietrok and Donald Murphy. Miss Josephine Brand of Stayton played the wedding marches and she, assisted by Mrs. Lawrence Pietrok, sang during the Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a bridal gown of ivory satin ending in a full length train. Her finger tip veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Toman, cousin of the bride who wore a satin gown of emerald green, and Miss Louise Pietrok, sister of the groom who wore a satin gown of tiger rose. Mildred carried a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums and Louise carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Louis, brother of the groom and Anton, cousin of the groom were the groom's men. Ed Milner, cousin of the groom served as usher.

Following the ceremony, breakfast was served to the bridal party and immediate relatives at the home of the groom's parents.

A reception was held at the Rebekah hall for relatives and close friends, Mrs. Albert Toman of Mill City, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Lawrence Pietrok, aunt of the groom cut and served the wedding cake, Mrs. Andrew Pietrok presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Paul Pietrok served the coffee.

Gifts were opened by Teresa and Frances Pietrok and Mary Pietrok passed the guest book.

For going away the bride donned a wine colored suit with black accessories and a yellow rose corsage. Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Stayton.

Members and friends of the Presbyterian church, enjoyed a no-host dinner in the Presbyterian recreation room Thursday evening.

Household Shower Held For Don Farrows in Detroit

The Blue Moon cafe in Detroit was the setting for the miscellaneous household shower for Mr. and Mrs. Don Farrow, Friday night. The Farrows lost their home and furnishings in a fire last Friday night. Among the many gifts presented to them were an electric blanket from the business people of the locality, a chrome and leather chair from the American Legion, a table lamp from the Willing Workers club and $20 in cash from the Idanha Community church.

Mrs. Gordon Skidmore played several piano selections while the crowd gathered. After the honored guests had opened their gifts refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The ice cream was provided by the Willing Workers.

Altar Society Card Party Great Success

Nearly 200 canyon citizens enjoyed the Saturday evening card party sponsored by St. Catherine's Altar Society in the Mill City I. O. O. F. hall.

Canasta, pinochle and bridge furnished the evening's entertainment. Successful players won choice prizes donated by business men and women of the canyon communities. Door prizes, also donated, went to lucky ticket holders.

First prize winners in canasta were Mrs. Ruth Watt and Mrs. Barton who received prizes donated by Ester Foster of Salem and Ken Golliet of Mehama. Mrs. Sweitzer, second high in canasta, was awarded a nice prize given by the Hill Top Store in Mill City. Mrs. Lowell Stiffler took away the consolation prize donated by Ressler's Grocery Store in Mill City.

Mrs. Agnes Kellom and Mrs. Mildred Doughty, top scorers of the large number of pinochle players present in the hall, were presented with first prize winnings donated by Price's of Salem and Allen Keith of Mill City. Robert Pratt earned the pinochle consolation prize furnished by O'Leary's Variety Store in Mill City.

J. O. Murray, Bert W. Provost, Mrs. Ed. Yarnell and Robert Pratt all of Mill City held the lucky numbers in the drawing for door prizes. Door prizes were contributed by Shirley's Beauty Shop, Hill Top Store, J. O. Murray and Stewart's Grocery, all of Mill City.

Delicious refreshments in the form of cake and coffee were made and served in ample quantities by the members of the Altar Society to all those present at the Saturday card party.

Mrs. George W. Humphrey of Mill City, general chairman of the card party, had as her co-workers on committees: Mrs. Russell Hoffman and Mrs. Jack Murray in charge of the prizes; Mrs. George LeHaie, Mrs. Joseph F. McNealy, Mrs. George Dell, Mary Jane and Phyllis Cox managed the food problem; Mrs. Lowell Stiffler, Mrs. George Ditter, Mrs. Tony Zeibert and Mrs. Robert Majhor had charge of tables, chairs and dishes used; Mrs. Paul Ressler, Mrs. Ed Kellom and Mrs. William Tickle provided the decorations and cards for the occasion; Mrs. Allen Keith and Mrs. Don Peterson handled the publicity and ticket sales promotion and Mrs. Ray Steiner and Mrs. Roy Kendler were on the clean-up committee.

International Dinner Progressing Rapidly

The third International Progressive Dinner sponsored by the Mill City PTA will be held on Thursday, Nov. 2 from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Proceeds netted from the dinner will go towards buying much needed items for both schools and for carrying on the activities of the PTA.

The last two years the International Progressive Dinner has netted the PTA a nice profit and it would be wonderful if the same could be realized this year.

Courses to be served will be Soup at Mrs. Jesse Lee's residence; Salad at Mrs. Russell Hoffman's; main course, which will be Chinese at Mrs. James Swan; and dessert at the schoolhouse where also a short program will be presented.

Tickets for the dinner, which are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children under 14 years, may be obtained from the following people, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, Mrs. Laurence Kanoff, Mrs. Arthur Kriever and Mrs. Kenneth Crosier. The tickets this year are limited to 165 adults and about fifty children. So better get your tickets early this year.

Christian Endeavor Group Hears Gelder

Rev. Carl Gelder, minister of education of the First Christian church in Salem, speaks to a Willamette Union Christian Endeavor rally in the First Christian church in Mill City, Sunday, at 2:30 p.m.

Young people from Albany, Crabtree, Scio, Lebanon, Halsey, the WCTU, Orleans and Mill City are expected to attend.

For the enjoyment of those attending a special musical number is scheduled. Refreshments will be served at the close of the rally.

Officers of the recently organized Mill City Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church are Bob Shelton, president; Vera Loucks, vice pres.; Marlene Verbeck, sec.-treas., and Patricia Cree, program chairman.

Patricia Cree and Denny Marttala will lead the group next Sunday—two members take over such duties each Sunday evening the society meets. Refreshments are served every two weeks. Fourteen young people attended the last meeting.
