DETROIT

By MRS. O. J. WHITE
The Freshmen class with Mrs. Charlene Hanan as advisor gave a return party for the Sophomore class on Friday night. Games and refreshments were the order of the evening. About 40 attended. After the party the young folks attended the square dance held in the Mongold recreation center.

The Detroit high school and grade school will hold their annual Carnival on October 13 at the gymnasium at 7:30 p.m.

Four members of the Carnival committee together with Mr. White went into Portland on Saturday to secure prizes. They report some very nice and worth while prizes, some of the desirable things mentioned were table lamps, blankets, set of dishes, glassware, pictures, large copper horses, and numerous figurines besides many smaller prizes. The door prize this year will be a large and very beautiful table lamp. The carnival committee consists of Frankie Payne, Marlene White, David Bray and James White these from the junior and senior classes purchased the prizes, the sophomore and freshmen committee members are: Stanley Timms, Mary Sue Palmer, Alice Fryer and Billy Peterson.

There are to be three grade school booths, a candy booth, cake walk, and fish pond, the high school are having ten booths which will include also a food booth.

Those paying admission will be given a free ticket on the door prize. This carnival should be bigger and better than ever and everyone is invited.

ELKHORN

By ELSIE MYERS

Recent dinner guests at the Elkhorn guest ranch included Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Manert and family, Rosa Daly, Anna Daly and Lawrence Poole all of Mill City.

Arriving at the Carl Longnecker home Friday for the weekend were Mrs. Longnecker's mother, Mrs. Paul Payton and Mrs. Nora Taylor. They were joined on Sunday by Mr. Payton and Mrs. James Kessel of Salem. Mrs. Taylor, who before her marriage was Nora Crabtree, was a former teacher in the Elkhorn school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Speerstra and their guests Dr. and Mrs. Otto Kraushaar all of Salem were recent guests at the Elkhorn guest ranch. Dr. Kraushaar, who is a new-comer to Salem, is a child specialist. Mr. Speerstra is a Salem attorney and also co-owner of the Kotten-Speerstra farms.

Carl Longnecker accompanied by his brother Fred Longnecker of Silverton spent several days last week on a hunting trip to eastern Oregon. Having no luck they returned home where each bagged their buck very close to home.
