Detroit High Holds Successful Carnival

Detroit—The annual school Carnival held in the school gymnasium on the evening of Friday, Oct. 13, was a very successful carnival not only from the financial standpoint but also from the very enthusiastic way in which everyone participated in the games. The co-operation of the students in the booths was very fine, and the booths were artistically decorated with crepe paper and slogans and signs of various sorts. The large number 13s posted everywhere contributed an air of the October spirit and capitalized on the Friday the 13th idea. Both sides of the gym were lined with booths selling notions, candy, food, also such games as roulette, sling shot, darto, archery, cake walk, fish pond, basketball, a movie (located on the stage) also the sponge throw which was entered into with gusto with Coach Stan Whipple as the target.

In the center of the gymnasium was the large bingo booth with numerous lovely prizes, and just inside the door at the entrance was the jail which caused much merriment during the evening when many of the leading citizens of Detroit and Idanha as well as Mongold were kept behind the bars until after the fine was paid. Jailors were kept busy and the judge, Moyné Renner meted out the sentences.

The door prize as won by Mrs. McKinney of Idanha, the prize consisted of a very lovely table lamp with base of deep rose and an old fashioned print picture on the side and a very lovely shade. Darto prizes for boys was won by Darrell Falline, the girls prize went to Edna Golden, womens prize to Mrs. Barney and the men's prize to James White. Total receipts for the evening was $718.21, and of that amount $121 went to the grade school which had three booths in the carnival, candy, cake walk and fish pond.

Miss Joy Hills Speaks On School Fund to PTA

Miss Joy Hills of the state department of education from Salem gave a talk on the proposed increase in the basic school fund at the Mari-Linn Parent-Teachers Association meeting Friday evening, October 13, at the Mari-Linn school.

Mrs. Robert Fetherston, president of the Mari-Linn PTA introduced Miss Hills. Mrs. Elmer Etzel played a very lovely and enlightening number on the piano.

In observance of the second week in November, designated as Educational Week, Mari-Linn grade school will hold open house Thursday, Nov. 9th, with Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mrs. Orlin Elwood, Mrs. Hershel Culwell and Mrs. Ray Mohler the committee in charge. The hot lunch program was also discussed.

Changes in the cast of the PTA play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Creek" shows Mr. Thomas Putman playing "Aaron Slick"; Mr. Ivan L. Smith in the character of "Mr. Wilbur Merridew"; Elliott Bridges depicts "Clarence Green"; Mrs. Doris Gereth plays "Mrs. Rosey Brown"; Mrs. Betty Kruse, "Gladys May Merridew"; Mrs. Lois Fetherston, "The Girl in Red"; and Mrs. Phyllis Toland, "Little Sis Riggs".

Practice on the play resumed this week after the break due to the deer season. The play will be given during the early part of December for the purpose of raising money for the hot-lunch program for the school. Refreshments were served to the PTA by eighth graders' mothers.

Mehama Residents Plan Appeal To Highway Dept.

Citizens living on Blair street in Mehama, having choked on dust all summer, are irate over the rejection, by the county court of their petition for an oiled road.

Logging trucks unable to make the sharp turn from the Elkhorn road onto highway 222 drive around the block on Blair street much to the discomfort of residents. This route came into common usage when three loaded trucks upset attempting the turn.

Gone now is the dust, but mud and ruts have been substituted. The 32 registered voters and taxpayers who signed the original petition are now planning an appeal to the state highway commission.
