Rev. W. H. Lyman of the Court Street Christian church of Salem officiated at the double-ring ceremony which was performed before huge baskets of mixed flowers of pink and white.

The lovely, blonde bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lace trimmed white satin wedding gown, buttoned down the back, with matching mitts. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of artificial flowers. The bride carried a white Bible with a white orchid and white ribbon streamers knotted about tiny flowers. Maid of honor was Miss InVeta Powelson who wore a full-length dress of aqua and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums in a blending shade. Louis Verbeck, Jr., of Eugene, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Ushers were Tom Shelton and his brother, Bob Shelton of Mill City.

Immediately before the ceremony, and just after the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, the bridegroom sang "O Promise Me," with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Donald Sheythe, who furnished all the music for the ceremony.

A reception was held in the downstairs rooms of the church with Mrs. Josie Mises of Silverton, the bride's grandmother, cutting the beautiful wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Neil Verbeck of Silverton, the bride's aunt. Another aunt, Mrs. Marion Miller also of Silverton, presided at the coffee urn. Miss Annis Miller, a young cousin of the bride served from the punch bowl.

For going away the bride wore an aqua suit with red accessories and her white orchid as a corsage. The young couple left immediately following the reception, returning south with Mr. Kirk Wirick and son, Ralph, of Bakersfield, Calif. They will be at home at Reseda, Calif., near Los Angeles.
