Spooks and Ghosts At Golliet Party

The Mehama club hall gaily be-decked in autumn leaves and orange and black crepe paper was packed to capacity on Halloween for the annual party given by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Golliet.

Ghosts, red devils, Indians, hula girls and even Mickey Mouse paraded in the dim light for the judging of costumes, which was done by popular applause.

Winning first in the ten age group was Alameda Coffman as a flirting flapper. Taking first in the younger children group was Jo Ann Challenger originally costumed as a successful hunter with red shirt and hat, fox pelts slung over her shoulder, and a dog on a leash.

The big squash grown by Harley Johnson, which had been on display at the store was weighed at the party and the weight announced as 62½ pounds. Mrs. Diesberg was winner of the box of candy for accurately guessing the weight. The squash was broken into pieces and distributed among the guests, with Mrs. Jennie Moe expertly wielding the axe.

MILL CITY KINDERGARTEN CAN HANDLE MORE CHILDREN

Mrs. Jess Lee, chairman of the Mill City PTA kindergarten committee, announced today that Mrs. Agnes A. Allen's kindergarten still has room for several more four and five year old children.

Mrs. Allen lives in the last big white house on highway 222 on the left side of the road before crossing the last railroad track on the way to Lyons.

Children aged four and five may come to the kindergarten. The rates are $6.00 per month per child. The school takes up at 9 o'clock each day.

International Fete Nets PTA Tidy Sum

The Mill City PTA sponsored International Progressive Dinner held in Mill City November 2 netted the PTA $134.10, Mrs. Kenneth Crosier, PTA president, revealed today.

The soup course, depicting the nation of Israel, was served at Mrs. Jess Lee's home and prepared by Mrs. Robert Veness and Mrs. Frank Stovall. Mrs. Ed Cooke and Mrs. Norman Jensen helped in the kitchen. Mrs. Veness and Mrs. Stovall were ably assisted in serving by little Carol Veness. Costumes representative of Israel were worn by those serving.

The salad course in honor of Hawaii was served at the home of Mrs. Russell Hoffman. This course was prepared by Mrs. F. Tickle and Mrs. L. Lemke. Beautiful Hawaiian decorations, especially ordered from Hawaii by Mrs. Hoffman, decorated her home. Those serving the Hawaiian food were Jo Anne Hoffman, Patricia Wolverton, and Sue Mikkelsen, who were attired in Hawaiian grass skirts and sarongs sans shoes.

China came in for recognition in the main course served at Mrs. James Swan's home. The food was prepared by Mrs. F. Blazek, Mrs. R. Roberts, and Mrs. A. Podrabsky. Misses Lela Mel Kelly and Alona Faye Daly dressed in Chinese costumes served the delicious chow mein.

The dessert course, illustrative of the nation of Austria, was served in the recreation room of the high school. Mrs. E. Podrabsky, Mrs. W. Green, Mrs. L. Kuhlman, Mrs. J. Davidson, Mrs. J. Carey, Mrs. J. Fenel, and Mrs. W. Stewart of Mill City prepared the food. Mill City camp fire girls did the serving of this course.

Mrs. Crosier, in behalf of the Mill City PTA, expressed appreciation for the time and energy extended by individual PTA members in making the International dinner a success. A special expression of thanks goes to Mrs. Louis Verbeck, chairman of the dinner, Mrs. Lawrence Kanoff, Mrs. Arthur Kriever, Mrs. Jess Lee, Mrs. Russell Hoffman, and Mrs. James Swan for their efforts and generosity.

St. Catherine's Altar Society Elects Tickle

Mrs. Wm. F. Tickle of Mill City became president of the St. Catherine's Altar Society last week at a business meeting held in the Ray Steiner home in Mill City.

Mrs. Tickle succeeds Mrs. Allen Keith as head of the Altar Society. Mrs. Keith left the office vacant when she, and her husband, moved from the Mill City area.

Mrs. John LaHaie of Mill City is the Altar Society's choice to replace Mrs. Tickle as vice president. Plans were laid for a tea at the J. O. Murray home December 6.

Society members are making aprons which will be sold at the December tea.

Mrs. Chance Entertains At 'Crazy Hat' Party

Mrs. Carl Chance entertained at her home Friday morning with a "Crazy Hat" party. Each guest came wearing a comical hat of their own design. Mrs. Nell Swift and Mrs. Grace Dart received the prizes for the best fashions. Mrs. Swift's "creation" was made of a paper plate, paper doilies, crepe paper and a dozen balloons, of various colors, blown up and fastened to the crown. It was a very striking style. Mrs. Dart's hat was more of an appetizer. It was created of cabbage leaves, carrots and green onions trimmed with fuschias.

Following the judging Mrs. Dart's hat had to be placed on the porch due to the "fragrant" aroma.

Mrs. Robert Stanley gave a demonstration of Stanley products following the judging. The hostess served doughnuts and coffee to Mrs. Nell Swift, Mrs. Grace Dart, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. Morris Howe and Mrs. Stanley.

Monmouth spent the weekend at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston.
