Romey-Wrigglesworth Married in Albany

Gates—Mrs. Louisa R. Romey, daughter of Mrs. Rosa Roten, was married to Ernest J. Wrigglesworth Saturday afternoon, Nov. 4. The ceremony took place in Albany at the First Christian church. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Davis were the only attendants. Both the bride and groom have been residents of Gates for years and a host of friends wish them happiness.

Upon the return of the couple following a short wedding trip they were greeted at the home of the bride by a group of relatives and friends. Dinner was served by the bride's mother, Mrs. Roten to Mr. and Mrs. Wrigglesworth, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Wight, Mrs. Mary Howell, Truman Tibbets, Ed Keith Oliver, Daniel, Edward and Herbert Romey, sons of the bride.

Mr. Clarke, father of Mrs. Cecil Lake and grandfather of Mrs. Eddie Stone passed away in Hardin, Mont., Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Lake and Dick Cain are there.

St. Catherine's Parish 1st Communion Scene

St. Catherine's Parish a week ago last Sunday morning was the scene of a First Communion ceremony for a class of seven conducted by Father Carl Mai and Sisters from Sublimity.

Richard Tickle, son of the Wm. F. Tickles; Lee McNealy, son of the Joseph McNealys; Dee Anna Steiner, daughter of the Ray Steiners; Sylvia Peterson, daughter of the Don Petersons; Joan Bigger, daughter of the Ken Biggers; Larry Ziebert, son of the Tony Zieberts; and Edward Haney, son of the Frank Haney were the seven members of the Communion class of St. Catherine's parish.

Misses Mary Jane and Phyllis Cox gave the lovely white chrysanthemums that decorated the altar for the occasion. Mrs. Wm. Tickle and Mrs. Robert Bowes had charge of arranging the altar.

Mrs. Tony Ziebert and Mrs. J. O. Murray prepared fresh linens for the Parish altar. Parents of the children of the Communion class expressed their appreciation for the time and effort of those making the service a beautiful one. Special thanks were given to Father Mai and the Sisters, who, for the past year, have given the seven children catechism instruction.

After the completion of the First Communion ceremonies, the Communion class members, Father Mai, and the Sisters enjoyed a special breakfast at the home of the Ray Steiners.

Mr. Arthur Kriever, Southern Pacific trainman is in the SP hospital in San Francisco for a physical check-up.

Gates PTA Enjoys Regular Business Social Meeting

The Gates Parent-Teacher association met Thursday evening, Nov. 2, in the recreation rooms of the high school with a large attendance. Harold Wilson presided at a short business session. Reports from the various committees were heard. Mrs. A. Meirose gave a short talk on the most out-standing measures to be voted upon at the coming election. The results of the recent membership drive were announced. The side under Mrs. Joe Joaquin and Mrs. Burrell Cole had secured the names of 69 renewals and new members; the other contestants, Mrs. Riley Champ and Mrs. Elmer Stewart reported 46 new names. The side securing the lesser number will entertain those on the winning side at a future date.

La Veta Powelson and Earl Hennes, members of the high school drama class were presented in a one-act play, "Impudence of the Creature". Mrs. Don Milley gave two piano solos. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Velma Carey, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mrs. Charles Tucker and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge. The prizes awarded to the room having the most parents in attendance at the PTA meeting in October was given the sixth grade, Mrs. Olive Barnhardt, teacher, and to the tenth grade in junior high.

The next meeting of the PTA will be held at the high school Thursday evening, December 7.
