Catholics Assisting World War Needy

To assist the millions of war-stricken Korean civilians as well as expellees and refugees in Europe and the Near East, an emergency Thanksgiving clothing collection, conducted on a nation-wide basis by war relief services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, will find response from the St. Catherine's Parish in Mill City during November 19 to 26, it is announced by Father Carl Mai of Sublimity.

All materials donated will be forwarded to San Francisco for shipment overseas and free distribution to the needy. Anyone may contribute. Wanted are blankets, bedding, heavy winter clothing, children's garments, babies' layettes, and serviceable shoes. Donations should be brought to the parish church next Sunday or the following Sunday, Nov. 26.

Cash contributions, with checks made out to "Emergency Clothing Collection" may be sent to Catholic Charities, 400 Dekum building in Portland.

McCarty Lectures Before Gates Club

Mrs. G. E. McCarty gave an illustrated lecture on textile painting before the Gates Women's club no-host luncheon held last Thursday in the recreation room of the Gates high school.

Mrs. Edward Chance presided over the business session that followed the luncheon. Because the date of the social meeting falls on Thanksgiving Day, it was decided to omit that meeting and the December social session because of Christmas. The annual Christmas party will be held in the home of Mrs. Albert Millsap, Thursday evening, December 14.

Hostesses for the Christmas party are Mrs. Harry Keiser, Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Harry Richcreek and Mrs. Millsap. Christmas party entertainment arrangements are the responsibility of Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Gwen Schaer and Mrs. Clarence Johnson.

Each member of the club must bring a wrapped gift for the gift exchange at the Christmas party. Mrs. McCarty has been selected as instructor of a painting class made up of club members.

Those attending the Thursday luncheon were Mrs. Edward Chance, Mrs. William Suddeth, Mrs. Jesse Haywood, Mrs. Glen Gordon, Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Dale Stubbs, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. G. E. McCarty, Mrs. Glen Hearing, Mrs. Wilson Park and Mrs. Albert Millsap.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cole last week-end drove to Madras and there stayed overnight. The next day the Coles visited in Bend.

Armistice Wedding For Miss Stafford

Gates—Married at a candle light ceremony, at the Presbyterian church in Mill City, Saturday evening, Nov. 11, were Miss Carmen Stafford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stafford of Gates and David Barnhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Barnhardt of Pasco, Wash. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. David J. Ferguson at eight thirty o'clock.

Soloist was Mrs. Frank Merrill, who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Oh Promise Me". Mrs. Don Sheythe was accompanist and played the wedding marches. Candles were lighted by Miss Norma Devine and Miss Jean Oliver.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown fashioned with sweetheart neck line, fitted bodice and long sleeves. A white net fingertip veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her flowers were white chrysanthemums.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Marvin Stafford who wore an orchid gown and carried a nosegay of autumn flowers. Miss June Mitchell, also gowned in orchid and carrying a similar bouquet was bridesmaid. Little Susie Jenkins in a long white frock was flower girl.

Richard Parker stood as best man and the bride's brother, Marvin Stafford acted as groomsman. The ushers were Gerald Garrison and Wiley Muise. The bride's mother wore a dark green satin gown and corsage of white gardenias. The mother of the bridegroom chose a gown of gold crepe with white gardenia corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the recreation rooms of the church with Mrs. George Thomas and Mrs. Edith Kanoff, aunts of the bride cutting the cake, Mrs. Ruth Vining presiding at the punch bowl and Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt at the coffee urn. The guest book was passed by Miss Birdie Larson. Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Gates.

Betty and Helen Johnston Host Lyons Garden Club

Betty Johnston and Helen Johnston sponsored the Lyons Garden club this week at the Lyons community club house.

Gertrude Weidman was in charge of the business meeting and was assisted by Nina O'Neil, secretary. Each member responded to roll call with their favorite chrysanthemum. Lola Lambert gave a very interesting article on mulching and fertilizing. Entertainment was furnished by Alice Huber. Mary Fink and Golda Brassfield won in the guessing games conducted.

The next meeting will be held December 13. Gertrude Jungwirth and Gladys Kuiken will be hostesses and Bea Hiatt will furnish the entertainment.

Alice Huber has charge of the club's Christmas party. Names were drawn for the Christmas party gift exchange.

At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served to Carrie Naue, Ethel Huffman, Jewell Hartnell, Laura Neal, Gladys Kuiken, Agnes Broetherton, Lola Lambert, Golda Brassfield, Evelyn Julian, Eva Bressler, Mary Fink, Anna B. Julian, Helen Hubbard, Mabel Downing, Gertrude Weidman, Nina O'Neil, Helen Johnston and Alice Huber.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Another Rummage Sale

The American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 159, held its regular monthly meeting on Monday, Nov. 13 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Mary Toman.

President Kay Colburn announced that the next Rummage Sale will be held at the Legion hall in Mill City on December 8 and 9, with a cooked food sale on the afternoon of the 9th, beginning at 1 p.m. Anyone wishing to donate rummage articles or food may contact Mrs. J. M. King, who is chairman of the Rummage Sale and Mrs. Nellie Stahlman, who is chairman of the Cooked Foods Sale.

The Legion Auxiliary will this year purchase and make gifts of all kinds to be sent to the U. S. Veterans Hospital Gift Shop at Portland. These gifts are then turned over to hospitalized veterans to be given by them at Christmas time.

President Colburn also announced that plans are being made for a Legion Christmas party, the date to be set later.

25th ANNIVERSARY DINNER HONORS THE EARL ALLENS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen were complimented on their wedding anniversary when friends and neighbors gathered at the Rebekah hall Sunday evening to help them celebrate their 25th anniversary.

A large contribution of silver was presented them. The serving table was centered with a large anniversary cake and a beautiful cake baked by Mrs. Allen's niece, Mrs. Dale Bassett of Corvallis.

Ice cream, cake and coffee was served, with Mrs. Alex Bodeker cutting the cake; and Mrs. Paul Bassett presiding at the coffee urn.

A short musical program was presented by Dale and Cecil Bassett on their accordians accompanied by Shirley Johnston at the piano. Mrs. Floyd Bassett gave two humorous readings. Sixty guests signed the guest book.

Rebekahs of Lyons Plan Local Visit

The Faith Rebekah lodge last week in its regular meeting at the Lyons lodge hall nominated officers for the coming year.

Tentative arrangements were made for some local members to visit the Santiam Rebekah lodge at Mill City, Friday evening at the same time the president of the Rebekah assembly makes her official visit to the Mill City group.

Representatives of the Turner lodge visited this week's meeting. Hazel Lewis had charge of the entertainment for the social hour.

At the close of the evening, pumpkin pie and coffee refreshments were served to the group by a committee composed of Celena Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, May Patton, and Hazel Lewis.

Plans were discussed regarding the presentation soon of the traveling gavel to another lodge, since Faith Rebekah lodge received the gavel from the Mill City lodge last October.

Miss Valine Everton, niece of Mrs. B. E. Cole of Mill City, spent four days of her vacation with the Coles. Miss Everton lives in Richland, Wash., and is a government employe.

Mari-Linn PTA Outlines Contest

The Lyons Mari-Linn PTA met Friday evening, November 10, in the 5th grade room of the Mari-Linn school. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Lois Fetherston, president presided over the business session.

The pupils of the first and second grade gave an interesting music and rhythm demonstration under the supervision of Miss Vivian Boyce, Mari-Linn music teacher.

The membership committee announced the addition of 39 new members this year. There will be a prize of a record given to the room having the most parents attending the meeting. Attendance will be figured on a percentage basis.

A collection was taken at the meeting for a large coffee pot. There was more than enough money contributed for the coffee pot. The remainder of the contributions goes into a coffee fund.

Mr. Thomas Putman, principal, announced the school board's purchase of 100 folding chairs and formation of a school basketball team which to date is scheduled to play five games away from home.

A very interesting calendar of things planned for the year of regular meetings was read. A comedy plus a very beautiful and unique movie of Oregon were shown the group by Glen Julian. Refreshments were served by the seventh grade mothers.
