C.B.I. Engineers Activate Cagers

C.B.I. Engineers again are trying for the victory trail—this time with a basketball team.

The same boys who won the Mill City Softball league last summer are playing basketball. They are anxious to maintain their record on the casaba court.

Gayle Lowery, the softball star, looks as if he will shine anew as a forward, and "Big Bill" Nourse transfers from first base to the center post with ease.

Others on the squad are: Yarnell, guard; J. Lowery, guard; D. Kelly, guard; Jensen, guard; Bayliss, center; Ferguson, forward; Bengston, forward; and Paynter, forward.

The Engineers have played only two games so far, winning one and losing another.

Next week will see them pitted against the Gates Town Team at the Gates gymnasium on either Monday or Wednesday night, date as yet indefinite.

The Gates team swamped the Engineers in their first meeting this season, but they, and their star, Don Carey, will have to battle hard next week.

If there are any basketball teams in the vicinity looking for opponents, they may call the C.B.I. Engineers' office at the dam and a game can be arranged.

W.U. Bearcats Meet Oregon Tech Friday

Willamette's Bearcats will probably hold the favorites' role when they open their home season against Oregon Tech's Owls Friday night—but Coach John Lewis will not be inclined to agree unless his men show improvement before the clash.

Lewis is not satisfied with the practice performance of his club thus far this week as they seek to throw off the effects of last weekend's hard two games with Seattle university's Chieftains.

The offense department is one of the Willamette mentor's chief concerns. The WU's fast break attack is not yet generating full steam and last year's top scorers, Forwards Ted Loder and Doug Logue have yet to find their shooting eyes.

Lewis probably will again start with Loder and Logue at the forwards, Chuck Robinson at center and Hugh Bellinger and Lou Scrivens at the guards.

Robinson showed well in the Seattle series, leading the scoring with 27 points. Bellinger and Scrivens also held up their scoring end with 22 and 21 points respectively.

The Bearcats play host to the strong SOCE Red Raiders Saturday night.

Detroit High Cagers Defeat Sisters High

Detroit high school basketball team plays Gervais Friday evening in Gervais.

Detroit played Sisters in a non-conference game on the evening of December 6. The score was 43 to 34 in favor of Detroit.

Sisters are scheduled for a return game in Detroit later in the season.

Mill City Leads In Shuffle-Play

Mill City pucksters splatted Detroit 247 to 214 in shuffleboard tournament play here in Mill City.

Seven league tours have netted Mill City top notch by one game. One thing is clear, however, when there is a quick run-down on these games—competition has been rough.

The Mill City team of Alice Hoey-Phil McElhney shuffled together a high score of 41 points. Bud Gischer and Eric Nyberg toted up Detroit's high honor of 29 points.

Mill City tossed Gates a humdinger of a defeat last Sunday in Gates. Observers revealed that the Sunday Gates joust was the first match this year for the Gates' teams and more strength is bound to develop. Byron and Tally Davis teamed up to become champs on the board for Mill City with a 48-pointer. "Erick and Vera" took honors for Gates with 33 successful tries.

Those bringing Mill City one victory after another are teams Phil McElhney-Alice Hoey, E. Bennett-Geo. Stewart, Byron and Tally Davis, Inez and Al Haun, Cliff Waddle-Pete Catherwood, Gene and Ruby Armstrong, Pete Peterson-Bernice Bigger, John B. Herron—"Toots" Blazek.

Detroit shuffleboard artists in Detroit last Sunday pushed the pucks against Portland shuffler competition and came out second best, losing to Portland by eleven points. A return match in Portland is slated for Sunday, December 17.

Gates shufflers have a crack at Mill City coming up in Mill City this Sunday.

Timberwolves Drop Opener

The Mill City Timberwolves dropped their opening 1950-51 basketball game Tuesday night to the Stayton Eagles by a score of 52 to 28.

The first quarter was even as the Stayton Eagles took the lead at the quarter, 12-11. The Wolves lead by Chase's three first quarter buckets, had offset Titus' height during this opening period.

However, Titus and the other Eagles began to hit in the second period and led 29-16 at half-time.

In the third period Stayton picked up 10 more points while limiting the Wolves to three.

The fourth quarter was again fairly even as Stayton won by the final tally.

Titus led all scorers with 18 points, 14 in the first half. Chase led the Wolves with 10.

Mill City (28)	Stayton (52)
Chase (10)	F Hamilton (2)
Baltimore (6)	F Shower (10)
Downer (6)	C Titus (18)
Moberg (3)	G Haines (7)
Kanoff	G Johnson (8)

Reserves:	York (5)

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

The annual Christmas party of the Gates Womens club will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert Millsap, Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. Members attending are requested to bring a wrapped gift for exchange. Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, and Mrs. Gwen Schaefer will have charge of the entertainment.

Gates high students, who are members of the cast, and their director, Mrs. Dorothy Wood, who will present Moliere's play, "The Man Who Would Be Sick", Thursday evening, Dec. 14, at the Mill City Theatre, are rehearsing feverishly to perfect the performance before that date. Students are selling tickets from door to door in an effort to have a full house.

Mrs. Velma Carey visited in Portland over the weekend at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carey and daughter Diane.

A letter from Mrs. Ruth Garrard of Avusa, Calif., to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Weathers, told them she had been "Queen for a Day" in Los Angeles when she attended that broadcast. Her parents listened to a transcription of the program Monday and heard their daughter's voice.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clise were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Hara and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferguson, all of Eugene. The Clises and their guests visited at the home of Mr. Clise's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clise on the Little North Fork.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hearing since before Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. Merit Waltz, parents of Mr. Hearing, left Thursday for their home in Baker. The Hearings and their guests were Corvallis visitors during their stay in Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Park and their three youngsters left last Saturday for their new home in Salem, where Park is employed.

Mrs. Norman Garrison was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital Sunday afternoon for a medical check and perhaps major surgery.

Louise Haun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun, was rushed to the Salem Memorial hospital very early Thanksgiving day with an acute case of appendicitis. The child had been ill at home for several weeks with rheumatic fever and her doctor was fearful that the resulting heart condition would not stand an operation. Two days later, when her condition remained critical an appendectomy was performed and Louise is now reported to be much improved in health, though still hospitalized.

Ed Davis is recovering from a fall he sustained while doing the chores in his barn. He suffered a badly sprained back which caused him great pain for several days.

Here Comes Kris Kringle!

Imagine the whoops of joy that will go up when Santa Claus arrives at the kids' Christmas party, riding high on these charming little coconut cakes instead of in the conventional sleigh with reindeer!

Although Kris Kringle Cakes are very festive looking, they will give you no argument at all about time and work involved. You just make them with a quick white cake mix, or if you prefer, buy plain sponge cake, cut it in squares, and decorate them as pictured. The frosting itself couldn't be simpler, and the youngsters will love the tart flavor and delicate color the jelly gives it. Drifts of shredded coconut cover the cakes, so Kris Kringle looks for all the world as if he were climbing right out of drifts of snow.

KRIS KRINGLE CAKES

Buy or bake your favorite cake. Cut in squares and spread with Coconut-Currant Frosting.

Coconut-Currant Frosting

1/2 cup tart currant jelly	4 tablespoons sugar
1 egg white, unbeaten	Dash of salt
	1/4 cup coconut

Combine jelly, egg white, sugar, and salt, in top of double boiler and mix thoroughly. Place over boiling water and beat with rotary egg beater 3 minutes. Frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from boiling water and cool slightly before spreading. Spread on cake, sprinkling with coconut while frosting is still soft. Makes enough frosting to cover tops and sides of two 9-inch layers, or top and sides of 13x9x2-inch cake, or about 2 dozen cupcakes.
